NO. 105—SIXTY-SECOND YEAR VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1920 TWENTY-TWO PAGES

AUTHORITIES MAKE EXHAUSTIVE RAIDS ON DUBLIN HOUSES

Most Elaborate Known Since the Disturbances of Easter Week, 1916—Close Search for Murderers of Magistrate Wells—Labor Executive Modifies Embargo on Exportation.

CONTRADICTORY STATEMENTS PERSIST REGARDING RELEASE OF PRISONERS

LONDON, April 15.—All the men arrested in Dublin Thursday, except five, were later released, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Dublin.

DUBLIN, April 15.—The labor executive tonight removed the embargo laid today except on bacon, butter and live pigs. It entirely prohibits the exportation of bacon and pigs, and urges the cessation of butter shipments until the price falls to three shillings per pound.

Monaghan and Londonderry were the only Irish counties where abandoned barracks were not burned on Easter Sunday.

Today's raids in Dublin were more exhaustive and detailed than since Easter week, 1916. The police theory is that the murderers of Mr. Wells were three in number, and that they lived in the neighborhood. Among the houses searched was the home of two of the released hunger-strikers, the father and another relative of whom were arrested. Jacobs' biscuit factory, a quarter of a mile from the scene of the killing, also was searched. Several men of the night shift were arrested.

LONDON, April 15.—Notwithstanding Mr. Bonar Law's statement in the House of Commons yesterday, some of the dispatches from Dublin insist that the release of the Irish prisoners from Mount Joy prison was unconditional. These set forth that the prisoners were asked to sign the parole, but refused; thereupon the conditional terms of the releases were read aloud to them, but they gave neither word nor sign of acceptance, and were allowed to go.

The newspapers remark on the strange discrepancy and speculate as to whether it is the intention of the authorities to re-arrest the men when they have recovered or adopt a new policy.

HOW PROSPECTING REWARDS VETERANS

Concrete Evidence of What Perseverance and Honesty Can Do For Returned Men in Field Available in B.C.

The satisfactory manner in which two returned soldiers of this city are likely to settle for themselves the problem of their civil re-establishment is contained in the story of a mining deal recently consummated in Victoria and Vancouver. The negotiations have been in regard to the sale of two groups of silver claims, in the Stewart district, by the brothers Benson, the sons of Mr. Henry Benson, formerly M.P.P. for Victoria, to a syndicate of well known Vancouver men.

For two years before the war the brothers had been prospecting in the Stewart district. On the Canadian side of the boundary they had located the White Mouse, a group of four claims, on the Big Missouri Ridge, Cascade river. On the American side they had located a further group of fourteen claims. On their discharge from the Canadian forces two years ago they went north to Stewart again, and despite many difficulties and handicaps, incident not only to the nature of the work but also to their

INDIANS ARE PREY FOR MONEY SHARKS

OTTAWA, April 15.—Charges that the present immunity from debt collection granted Indians was working very much to their disadvantage were made by Indians before the committee on the amendment to the Indian Act today.

Elliott Moses, an educated Indian, leader of the Six Nations Indians, also a member of the Great War Veterans, declared they had proof of white money lenders extracting 100 per cent interest under threat of exposing members of tribes to their chiefs. He strongly urged that the contemplated legislation would break up their lands.

Speaking with evident feeling, Mr. Moses said it was breaking the hearts of Indians to see pagan folk on their reserve denying their children the right of education. The present compulsory act was not workable owing to internally corrupt conditions. Compulsory enfranchisement was too sudden.

Another Great War Veterans' Association Indian, he said, had compared the council in his reserve to the people in the jungle of Africa.

Denikine Going to England

LONDON, April 15.—The War Office announces that Gen. Denikine, former anti-Bolsheviki leader in Southwestern Russia, who was previously reported as leaving Constantinople for Malta, will, instead, proceed to England.

Street Railway Wages

VANCOUVER, April 15.—Motormen, conductors, barnmen and other classes on the B.C.E.R. street railway coming under jurisdiction of the Amalgamated Street Railway Employees Union, have received a raise in pay of four cents per hour, dating from April 1. The increase will cost the company $180,000 per annum.

BRITAIN ADVANCING MONEY TO ARGENTINA

BUENOS AYRES, April 15.—The arrangement whereby the British Government will loan Argentina $50,000,000 to pay off the six per cent five-year loan of that amount due to New York bankers on May 15, is in reality a sort of triangular transaction by which Great Britain pays off half of the $100,000,000 she owes Argentina, it is learned from an authoritative source.

The latter debt was contracted by Great Britain with Argentina in 1918 in the form of a credit for the purchase of wheat. It is understood that in view of Great Britain shipping gold to the United States, Great Britain agrees with the Argentine Minister in London to ship $50,000,000 for the account of Argentina, which will stand as a British loan to this country at 5 per cent until January next, when it is expected she will charge the sum to Argentina in paying off the $100,000,000 debt.

MUST PROVE ITS MONOPOLY CLAIM

Premier Holds Esquimalt Water Works Company Must Not Hinder Development of Former Reserve

Before the Victoria Private Bill completed its passage through the committee stage in the Legislature last night, a lengthy argument upon the attitude which the Esquimalt Water Works Company has seen fit to assume in respect to its claim to have exclusive jurisdiction over the reserve area in the matter of delivery of water, was had.

The subject came up for discussion when Mr. H. C. Hall, Liberal member for Victoria, in whose charge the bill had been since it reached the House from the Private Bills Committee, moved the following amendment: "Upon securing the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Corporation of Victoria Water Works Act, 1873, and amendments thereto, or of any other statute, the corporation shall have the right to supply and distribute water to users requiring the same within the territory known as the Songhees reserve," and, the amendment went on, the city should have the right to lay necessary mains and impose and collect

REGINA, Sask., April 15.—The question of co-relating the road programmes of the three Prairie Provinces in expenditures under the federal appropriation for highways was discussed today at a conference of representatives of the highways departments of Manitoba and Alberta, at the Legislative buildings.

Blamed for Fatal Hotel Fire

SEATTLE, April 15.—Laxity of city departments in enforcing state and municipal fire laws, was responsible for the fire which destroyed the Lincoln Hotel here, and caused the loss of four lives, on the morning of April 8, a coroner's jury, investigating the tragedy, found in a verdict returned late today.

PALESTINE PLAN IS NOT CHANGED

LONDON, April 15.—Questioned in the House this evening by Josiah C. Wedgewood, Laborite, concerning rumors from the United States that riots in Jerusalem had caused the British Government to change its mind about making Palestine a home for the Jews, Mr. Andrew Bonar Law said he believed there had been no change in the British policy what ever.

STRIKE HAMPERING B. C. LUMBER TRADE

VANCOUVER, April 15.—The switchmen's strike on the railways in the United States is having a far-reaching effect on the lumber business in B.C., particularly curtailing the exportation of shingles, for which there is always an American market available, depended on by local manufacturers to a large extent. Railway officials state an embargo has now been placed on all Canadian shipments on practically all American lines east of Chicago. This applies to shipments both ways, so that trade between Canada and points included in this section covered by the embargo is virtually at a halt until the matters are adjusted.

CAPT. STRATFORD MYSTERY CLEARED

He Is Alive and Well and Writes From North That He Regrets Notoriety His Sudden Departure Gave Him

Captain Frank C. Stratford, reported "missing" since about two weeks ago, is not only alive and well, but keenly resentful of the reports circulated about that he mysteriously vanished.

He is now in the North, having sailed from Seattle several days ago at short notice in order to accept a particularly tempting offer. Just what he is doing now and what he intends to do is not stated definitely in the news received from the captain yesterday, but enough is known to give assurance that he is at least in moderately good health and at no time desired to disappear.

Captain Stratford's approximate whereabouts became known yesterday when a letter was received here from him, stating that on the way North he had been astonished to read in the newspapers that he had somehow gone astray and that search parties were looking for him. Evidently he disliked the notoriety these reports gave him, because his letter mildly censured those who first gave the alarm.

According to the captain's letter, he wrote home telling of his plans, but evidently this message got lost in the mails somehow.

The "disappearance" of Captain Stratford caused a seven-day sensation here. A systematic search was made for him. Lost Lake, where it was suspected that he had gone, was dragged in an effort to locate the skipper. Search parties scoured the woods of Saanich, and Colonel A. W. R. Wilby, of the Marine Department, offered to place Government launches at the disposal of those who hunted.

The mystery took a new turn when someone reported having seen Captain Stratford on the Vancouver boat bound for the Mainland. Inquiries were made in Vancouver and Seattle without avail. Finally he was given up for lost.

Captain Stratford states in his letter that he will be back in Victoria about the first of May. Those who spread the reports are now wondering whether to prepare a big welcome or leave town.

HUDSON BAY HEAD WILL SPEAK HERE

Sir Robert Kindersley Will Address Canadian Club in May—Has Had Notable Financial Career

Sir Robert Molesworth Kindersley, K. B. E., governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, and one of London's most powerful financial figures, will be a guest of the Canadian Club at a luncheon to be given about May 20, it was announced last night by President John Cochrane. He will deliver an address on some Canadian or Imperial topic.

Sir Robert will visit Victoria in connection with the big pageant being held here May 24 by the Hudson's Bay Company. He will leave his office in London for Canada within a few days.

Born in 1872, the son of an army captain, Sir Robert Kindersley early attained success as a business organizer. He joined the firm of Lazard Bros. & Co., and subsequently became a director of the Bank of England. His association with the Hudson's Bay Company commenced some years ago, and his tenure of office with this great corporation has been marked with conspicuous success. He is regarded as one of the Empire's foremost businessmen. In 1917 he was created a Knight of the British Empire.

VANCOUVER, April 15.—The Trades and Labor Council (international) at its meeting here tonight appointed a committee to consider the advisability of starting a new labor party in British Columbia.

KEMAL FOUNDS TURK REPUBLIC

Working to Establish Independent Ottoman State in Anatolia, With Prince Djemal Eddine as Viceroy

PROCLAIMS HIMSELF AS GRAND VIZIER

Republic Reported to Be of Soviet Character—Woman Leader Among Nationalists Is Minister of Education

PARIS, April 15.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish National leader, contemplates the founding of an independent Ottoman state in Anatolia, according to reports from Constantinople to The Temps. He is said to have proclaimed Prince Djemal Eddine, a member of the imperial family, as viceroy.

Kemal Pasha, the report adds, proclaimed himself Grand Vizier and Minister of War; Admud Rustem, former Ambassador at Washington, as Minister of the Interior. It is not believed in Constantinople, the correspondent states, that Prince Djemal has authorized the use of his name.

A Constantinople dispatch on April 13 carried an unconfirmed report from Constantinople that the Imperial Prince Djemal Eddine Pasha, son of Schefket Pasha, had been designated by Mustapha Kemal as Viceroy of Anatolia.

Woman Minister

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 15.—Halidde Edib, the most prominent woman leader amongst the Turkish Nationalists, has escaped the searching parties of the Allies, who wish to send her to Malta, and now is in Angora, where she has been appointed Minister of Education of the new republic of which Prince Djemal Eddine is reputed to be president.

The republic is reported to be of soviet character.

PRINCIPLE OF ACT ELIMINATED

Civil Service Commissioner No Longer Accountable Only to Legislature — Government Controls His Actions Now

The corner stone principle of the Civil Service Act, the measure designed by the late Premier, Hon. Mr. Brewster, to take the control of the Provincial Civil Service from out of hands of politics by vesting its control and direction in the hands of an independent official, subject only to the direction of the Legislature, was knocked out last night when the Government majority adopted an amendment presented by Mr. David Whiteside, Liberal member for New Westminster, amending the Civil Service Act to the extent that the power held by the Legislature to dismiss the Commissioner was eliminated and vested in the hands of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Last Saturday night Mr. Whiteside roundly criticized the present Civil Service Commissioner, Mr. W. R. McInnes, declaring he was not a big enough man for the office. He then suggested that if the Government were desirous of doing its duty it would dismiss him. In view of the fact that the only authority that could dismiss the Commissioner was the Legislature, he suggested that the Government should bring in a change to permit the cabinet dealing with the Commissioner.

Rule by Order-in-Council

When the Civil Service Act was before the House last night in its committee stage Mr. Whiteside introduced an amendment to give effect to his suggestion of Saturday night and it was approved by a majority of the members, but not without strong protest from Mr. F. W. Anderson, Liberal member for Kamloops.

Mr. Anderson roundly criticized Mr. Whiteside for having attacked an official on the floor of the House when the latter was not able to defend himself. Why did not the member for New Westminster, he demanded, come forward and say what were the grounds upon which he based his objections to the Commissioner? What did he mean when he stated better organization of the service was required, that a stronger man was needed? What was the member sore about? Mr. Anderson asked.

Mr. Anderson declared he did not know whether Commissioner McInnes was or was not a ward heeler, but it was most unfair for the member for New Westminster to attack an official without coming forward with some facts to substantiate his charge. The Commissioner, he held, was occupying a very difficult position, and was trying to do his best and was entitled to a square deal. The amendment, Mr. Anderson declared, literally cut the nerve of the Civil Service Act, defeated the principle enunciated by the late Premier, who had taken such a keen interest in seeing the service taken away from politics and thus eliminating the evils of patronage. The whole speech of the New Westminster member, Mr. Anderson declared, was an attack upon the Government, and if the amendment carried the leadership of the House was lost to the Legislature.

SENATE CONFIRMS THOSE NOMINATED TO RAILWAY BOARD

Labor Tribunal Is Promptly Called Together by President, and Its Work Is Expected to Have Beneficial Effect on Strike Situation—Prosecutions Are Proceeding

TWENTY-FIVE MEN TAKEN IN CHICAGO

President of Yardmen's Association and Chairman of Enginemen Among Arrests—Strikers Resent Prosecutions—Managers' Association at N.Y. Issues Ultimatum

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Members of the Railway Labor Board, whose nominations were confirmed today by the Senate, were called tonight by President Wilson to meet tomorrow and organize. Some of them are already in the city, and provision has been made for their assembly at the headquarters of the railway administration.

The President's call was issued as soon as word of the Senate's action reached him. Administration officials have felt that the board would prove an effective agency toward ending the "outlaw" strike of railwaymen.

The Senate apparently shared this view. While sharp criticism of some of the nominations is known to have been expressed again today, final action was taken in an unusually brief time, considering the importance of this new government agency for the immediate task that faces it.

The action of the Senate in confirming the members of the Labor Board will permit an early test of the theory that the board's consideration of railroad labor's wage demands would ease the strike situation and work generally to alleviate unrest in that class of workers.

Attorney-General Palmer said today he believed that the chaotic condition created by the walkout was improving, but he declared that the Department of Justice was not relaxing its efforts in any direction. United States district attorneys in every strike area have made local arrests of agitators and strikers, but these, it was said, were cases where specific law violations have occurred. Mr. Palmer declared such matters were not for "headquarters'" consideration, reiterating that the Government expected the district attorneys to act on their own initiative with respect to the prosecution of violators of laws.

Department officials have practically decided to canvass the lists of all the strikers and are expected to ask officials of all railroad lines affected by the strike to furnish the same information as was requested of the Pennsylvania and New York Central lines on Tuesday. Assistant Attorney-General Garvan said he expected these lists of names to divulge the identity of the "borers from within" in the recognized labor organizations.

The department has card-indexed the records of more than 60,000 radicals and the names of strike leaders will be traced through these records in an effort to establish connections with previous activities. Mr. Garvan said a staff of clerks already had begun the work of eliminating the "misled from the agitators," through the process of comparison of records. This work will go on, even though the strike collapses completely, he said.

Arrests at Chicago

CHICAGO, April 15.—Charged with violating the Lever Act, 25 leaders in the insurgent strike of railroad switchmen were under arrest in Chicago tonight. In all 30 warrants were issued, and railroad and brotherhood officials declared that the last bulwark of the local strike has been broken. Government agents said 200 other warrants would be issued later.

Among the arrested was John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association. The men were taken by Federal agents at meetings of strikers, and the action was unexpected by the men.

The prisoners, who also included H. E. Reading, chairman of the United Enginemen's Association, were released for a hearing April 24 on $10,000 bonds each by Commissioner Mason. The raids had been under preparation for a week District-Attorney Clyne said. The arrests followed telephonic communication with Attorney-General Palmer at Washington.

The section in the Lever Act under which today's action was taken provides a penalty of not more than a $5,000 fine or imprisonment for a half-year, or not more than two years, or both. It is charged that the men conspired to interfere with shipments of food and the necessaries of life.

Resented by Strikers

The men, it was declared, generally showed resentment against the Government's action, and declared they would continue the strike. After the arrests 300 switchmen voted to stay out.

Grunau and Reading in a statement tonight declared the walkout was not a strike, and said no demands were sent to railroad managers until the men had left their work.

"They were not called out," the statement said. "We realise that these arrests are the work of the Brotherhood officials in an attempt to force us back to work. They will fail in their attempt. We still deny that we have violated any law or committed any overt act. We are not I. W. W. or Reds."

Ultimatum at New York

NEW YORK, April 15.—The railroad general managers' association of New York delivered an ultimatum to the "Big Four railroad brotherhoods giving them until noon Saturday to have their men report for work.

After that time, it is stated, the railroads "will themselves open their books for a period of 24 hours ending at noon Sunday, for such men as register during that period, and who are acceptable, who will be taken back into the service, retaining their roster rights."

"In any event," the ultimatum added, "the railroads retain the right to refuse to reinstate or re-employ certain employees who have shown during the period of trouble by violence, seditious utterances, intimidation or other well-defined means, an unfitness for further railroad service.

BODY OF CANADIAN IS FOUND IN THAMES

LONDON, April 15.—H. G. Clarke, a Canadian, has been found drowned in the Thames. Little is known about him, but people who traveled with him from Montreal and across in the ss. Grampian said at the inquest that they understood he was from Vancouver, where he kept an hotel. Here he represented himself as concerned with contracts for wooden houses. He arrived on the Grampian about ten weeks ago.

PORT EXPERTS VISIT IN MAY

Technical Eyes of Continent Will Be on Victoria's Outer Harbor Works on 23rd of Next Month

Sunday, May 23, Victoria will be host to the Seventh National Foreign Trade Convention party, which is to meet in San Francisco, May 12 to 15, this year. According to the current issue of the monthly bulletin of the American Association of Port Authorities, this will include American business men from all over the world as well as trade advisors from the Far East, Australasia and South America and a great many of the port authorities of the United States and Canada.

In view of this latter fact, it was suggested to the convention committee that the members of the Association avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by their presence in the West to become acquainted with the ports of the Pacific. Hon. W. T. Christensen, Port Commissioner of Seattle, was the author of the suggestion. The ports of San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Astoria have co-operated in the request, and the suggestion is being acted upon.

Accordingly the arrangements are being made so that the delegates to the convention will arrive in San Diego not later than the evening of May 7 so that the time intervening between then and the opening date of the congress may be devoted to an inspection of the port facilities of San Diego and Los Angeles. After the convention, the ports of Portland, Astoria and Seattle will be inspected and the party will reach Victoria on May 23. They will leave here on the night of that day for Vancouver, where the inspection tour will close.

One of the main objects of the visit of those trade and port experts to this city will be to inspect the new harbor works constructed at Ogden Point in which the port commissions of the continent were greatly interested at the time of construction. The reception of the party here will be under the direction of Industrial Commissioner J. G. Thomson, and he will likely have the co-operation of the Harbor Association.

Prepares Criticism For G. T. R. Bargain

Opposition Leader Secures Postponement of the Second Reading Debate in Order to Deal With Correspondence—Question of Bonuses for Civil Service Comes Up

OTTAWA, April 15.—Opposition criticism of the Government's bargain with the Grand Trunk Railway Company was deferred until tomorrow on the suggestion of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in the House today. On the second reading of the bill to confirm the agreement between the Government and company, Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, produced a mass of correspondence which had passed between the interested parties. This correspondence had been requested by the Leader of the Opposition on the previous evening, but when he found that it took about two hours for the Minister of Railways to read it, he asked for more time to look it over. His request was acceded to by the Government, and consequently Mr. King moved the adjournment of the debate.

The reading of the documents by Dr. Reid showed that some doubt had been cast on the legality of the shareholders' meeting in London at which the agreement was ratified. The minister stated that the meeting had been called regularly in accordance with the by-laws of the company, and notices had been sent to the 70,000 shareholders domiciled in Great Britain. The Canadian shareholders had been notified by a notice published in the Canada Gazette.

The opinion of the Justice Department and other solicitors, said the Minister of Railways, was that the meeting had been regularly called. Had it not been for two mistakes in the schedule of the act, the Government would have proceeded to the carrying out of the agreement as it was passed last session.

Food and Drugs Act

Amendments to the Food and Drugs Act precipitated a discussion at the evening session. Isaac Pedlow, of South Renfrew, was in strong opposition to certain of the clauses which were being taken up in committee, and introduced amendments to them. The first clause which he objected to provided for the payment of a portion of the fines obtained from convictions under the act to the person giving the information. Such a practice, said Mr. Pedlow, was pernicious and likely to breed a host of spies in the country.

The first amendment introduced by Mr. Pedlow was declared lost.

Mr. Pedlow's second amendment was to strike out the provision which made it compulsory for an innocent seller of adulterated goods, when brought to court, to produce the party who had sold him the goods, or pay the cost of the case. This was an injustice, he declared, and he forced the amendment to a vote, which resulted in a tie. The Deputy Speaker, who was chairman of the committee, voted against the amendment, saying that Mr. Pedlow could bring it up again on third reading of the bill.

A motion to provide $12,500,000 for civil service bonuses was introduced by the Minister of Finance. Hon. N. W. Rowell said that it was

STUTZ MOTOR STOCK SKYROCKETS ON CURB

NEW YORK, April 15.—Stock of the Stutz Motor Car Company, taken off the New York Stock Exchange at the request of the company's chairman, Allan A. Ryan, after the exchange suspended trading in it, went on sale on the curb today and brought higher prices than ever. The first sales were at 700 and 710, and as high as 720 was asked. The price when the exchange stopped trading was 681, and auction prices since then had been 700 and 701.

Ryan, whose resignation from the exchange, tendered with accusations that members of the board of governors were short in Stutz when trading was stopped in it, has not been accepted, today announced himself in favor of incorporation of the exchange.

INTELLIGENT INDIANS TALK TO COMMITTEE

OTTAWA, April 15.—"It is all a lot of poppycock for these men to come here and talk about us being allies and not subjects. We are British subjects, and indeed proud of it," said Lieut. Martin, a returned officer and an Indian from the Six Nations tribes before the committee on the Indian Act today. He declared that councillors had not only hindered the progress of education, but had actually urged their fellow-Indians not to enlist,

"If we had a government of our own, we might talk of being allies, but we are, once and for all, subjects of the British crown and good Canadian citizens," added Lieut. Martin, a sally which brought applause from the committee. Along with brother officers, Lieut. Martin bitterly denounced councillors on the reserves. The system was positively rotten, they urged, many of the councillors being unable to read or write.

Ex-Chief Timothy, an aged member of the Chippewa tribe, vigorously urged that they were British subjects, and created a surprise by pleading for compulsory enfranchisement.

REPORTS PEACE IN VLADIVOSTOK

Japanese War Office Says the Provisional Government Has Signed Agreement — Explanation of Occupation

TOKIO, April 15.—The War Office announces that the provisional government at Vladivostok has signed an agreement accepting most of Japan's terms. A War Office communication says peace has virtually been restored in Vladivostok and that there were no casualties among the civilian residents. It adds that several minor engagements in neighboring towns were all stubbornly contested, but that all of them resulted in the disarmament of the revolutionists.

A semi-official communication says Gen. Semenoff's troops are sweeping out the Bolshevik in the region directly south of Chita.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—An official statement by the Japanese War Office on recent events at Vladivostok received today by Major-General Inouye, military attache of the Japanese embassy here, says the Japanese decision to disarm the Russian army and navy at the Siberian port was reached only after the Russians had opened fire on Japanese sentries and patrols and attacked the Japanese marine supply train.

The statement was cabled in response to a special inquiry made by Gen. Inouye.

VLADIVOSTOK, April 5.—The first day of the Japanese military occupation, following eight hours of severe fighting, found the population idle with thousands of persons walking the streets in silence watching the Japanese patrols who had been placed in the streets on which are the government buildings.

Japanese flags have been removed from majority of the buildings seized this morning. Japanese guards remained, however. All the Russian forces in the city have been disarmed, and many soldiers and sailors have fled to the hills. Japanese sailors have occupied Russian naval craft in the harbor.

The Japanese report their casualties as two killed and ten wounded, and the Russian losses unknown.

VLADIVOSTOK, April 6. — All Allied nations are held responsible for the "tragic results" of the Japanese attack which yesterday ousted the Russian revolutional government from control here, says a statement made public today by M. Medvedieff, head of the revolutionary regime.

He asks Allied diplomats to propose to the Japanese that all Russians under arrest be released, that ll government buildings held by Japanese be evacuated, that the Japanese explain yesterday's attack and offer an apology to the revolutionary government, that Japanese troops cease searching buildings here, and that arms taken forcibly from Russians be returned.

LETTER CARRIERS GET HIGHER PAY

New Scale Announced by Department Makes Substantial Increase—Estimate for Civil Service Bonuses

OTTAWA, April 15.—The salaries of letter carriers have been increased. The new scale is as follows:

Heads of households receiving present maximum of $939 plus bonus will receive a salary of $1,140 plus a bonus of $420, or a total of $1,560.

Heads of households receiving present maximum of $939 for more than five years will receive a salary of $1,260, plus a bonus of $396, or a total of $1,656.

Single men receiving present maximum of $939, will receive a salary of $1,140, plus a bonus of $192, or a total of $1,332.

Single men receiving present maximum of $939 for more than five years will receive a salary of $1,260 plus a bonus of $162, or a total of $1,422.

The supplementary estimate of $12,500,000 for bonuses for the inside and outside civil service, tabled in the house by Sir Henry Drayton this afternoon, is for the same amount as voted last year. It is understood, however, that the application of the vote will this year be varied in some respects to secure more equitable distribution.

COAL MINERS ACCEPT GOVERNMENT OFFER

LONDON, April 15.—The members of the Miners' Federation by a majority of 65,315 votes have decided to accept the Governments' offer of a 20 per cent increase on gross earnings. The decision of the men obviates the danger of a strike.

The Government's offer provides for a minimum flat advance of two shillings for all workers over 18 years of age, one shilling for workers between 16 and 18 years, and ninepence for workers under 16 years.

This applies to the Pacific Coast division of the railroad, extending from Portland, Ore., to El Paso, Texas, and Ogden, Utah, it was stated.

BERLIN SUSPECTS MILITARIST PLOT

Press Gives Much Prominence to Reports of Intrigues—Lord Kilmarnock Talks—Von Luettwitz Arrested

BERLIN, April 15.—The Government has succeeded in placing under arrest Major-Gen. Baron von Luettwitz, commander of the rebel forces in the Kapp revolt, the semi-official Wolff Bureau announces.

Reports of continual reactionary intrigue are attracting great attention in the Berlin press. The Tageblatt today published an interview with Lord Kilmarnock, British charge d'affaires, in which the latter is reported to have said:

"I am convinced that a new military attempt would provoke the greatest indignation in England, and the British Government would repudiate it decisively. Every chance Germany has of obtaining help in the way of food, raw materials and credit will be spoiled by any acts of violence."

Speaking in the national assembly yesterday, Premier Mueller said that he could not agree that danger from the right party was ended by the collapse of the Kapp revolt. Danger, he said, is still threatening especially in Pomerania and Silesia, where Baltic troops are quartered, and a new fire might therefore break out any day.

If a second revolt, similar to the Kapp revolt, should occur, the Premier declared, it would be certain to cause a general strike as energetic as before.

The Vorwaerts reiterates that the Kappists have begun preparations for a fresh coup, which, according to many reports, might occur within a few days. Thursday is mentioned by the paper as being the likely date.

SONORA FORCES TAKE AGGRESSIVE

Cross State Line Into Sinaloa and Capture Two Towns—Carranza Preparing to Reinforce Federals

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, April 15.—Military forces of the new "Republic of Sonora" have crossed the state line of Sinaloa, captured two towns and are continuing toward Culiacan, capital of the neighboring state, thus taking the aggressive in the state's fight against the Carranza government of Mexico. El Fuerte, one of the most important mining camps in Sinaloa, about fifteen miles from the Sinaloa-Sonora boundary, and San Blas, a railroad junction point, have fallen to the Sonora forces, according to official information received here.

Reports that six other states, Michoacan, Morelos, Tamaulipas, Tobasco, Campeche and Jalisco, have joined forces with the Sonora movement against Carranza, remained unconfirmed tonight.

It was known that agents and sympathizers with the Sonora movement were active throughout the republic seeking aid.

Reports to military headquarters here said President Carranza plans to send thousands of troops against Sonora in an effort to put down the uprising. Leaders of the Sonora movement declared that by this plan a new revolution has been born.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 15.—Sonora, Mexico, has won her first fight for freedom, General Angel Flores, of the independent forces, this morning fought his way across the Sinaloa border, taking San Blas, on the boundary line, and is proceeding with 2,500 men, 1,000 of whom are Yaqui Indians, toward Culiacan, capital of the state.

According to special advices from Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, federal troops are deserting, the command of General Ramon Iturbide, chief of military operations in Sinaloa and Tepic. General Juan Carrasco, acting chief of staff to Iturbide, unable to stem the tide of the rebel advance, is retreating with his men in wild disorder, according to advices.

PARTIES LAY OUT CAMPAIGN WORK

Hon. Robert Rogers Announces Conservative Gathering — Ministers and Liberal Leader to Tour West

OTTAWA, April 15.—Announcement that the supporters of the Federal Conservative party intend to hold a Dominion-wide conference around the tenth of next month was made here tonight by Hon. Robert Rogers, former Minister of Public Works in the Borden Government. Interviewed by the Canadian Press, Mr. Rogers stated that all arrangements had been completed for a great get-together movement.

"During the last few months," said the ex-minister, "Liberal-Conservative organizations in the different provinces have been discussing the advisability of a Dominion-wide organization such as we had in 1911. This discussion has borne fruit. It has been decided to hold a round-table conference in Toronto on or about the 10th of May next. The delegates to this conference will be selected from the ranks of the Liberal-Conservative party in all the provinces of Canada. It will be a national conference of the moving spirits of the Liberal-Conservative party. It will have the advantage of compactness, and may be expected to transact business with dispatch.

"It is, perhaps, too soon," continued Mr. Rogers, "to discuss policy, but in a general way, it may be said that the policy that was good enough for Sir John Macdonald and Sir George Etienne Cartier is good enough for us. This policy, which has always governed the actions of the Liberal-Conservative party, we would consecrate anew in the hearts and minds of the Canadian people, bringing it up to date, of course, as Macdonald and Cartier would do if they were alive today, and putting it abreast of the wonderful opportunities which present themselves to develop our tremendous national resources."

Plan Western Tours.

It is understood that Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, is to tour the entire West at the close of the present session, beginning his trip about the second week in June, going as far as Victoria, B.C., and working eastwards.

Western supporters of the Government declare that he cannot hope to gain more than half a dozen seats at the most.

There also is talk of the Government followers urging a similar move on the part of the cabinet ministers, and it is likely that the plans for a tour of the West by one or more cabinet ministers, which was spoken of before the opening of the session, will be revived.

THREE CIVILIANS KILLED IN FIGHT

Fatal Encounter Reported From Milltown, County Clare—Dublin Returns to Normal State

DUBLIN, April 15.—Three persons are reported to have been killed and nine others wounded in a shooting affray at Milltown, Malbay, County Clare, this morning. It is alleged the police and military were involved. Those killed were civilians.

The capital is normal today following the release of the hunger-striking prisoners and the calling off of the general strike. Business is proceeding as usual and the tramways and trains are running, all of the employees having returned to work.

Extensive military raids were carried out in Dublin during the forenoon, and a hundred persons are reported to have been arrested. An official explanation of the raids is not available, however.

At the hospitals it is reported that some of the released hunger strikers are very weak, but that the others are progressing well.

Prohibition on food exports from Ireland until the market becomes normal is demanded in a manifesto issued last night by the Labor Party. It says the dislocation of traffic and the absence of transport have denuded towns of food.

Mr. Law Makes Denial.

LONDON, April 15.—Mr. Andrew Bonar Law, the Government leader, in answer to questions in the House of Commons regarding the release of Irish hunger strikers from Mount Joy Prison, stated they had not been unconditionally released. This statement controverted reports received from Dublin last night.

Mr. Bonar Law also denied that there had been any reversal of the Government's policy, declaring the present situation of the hunger strikers was similar to that of William O'Brien, alderman of Dublin, who was removed from jail to a hospital on March 26, owing to his condition.

Dublin Press Comment.

DUBLIN, April 15.—Commenting on the release yesterday of sixty-six Sinn Feiners who had been on a hunger strike in Mount Joy Prison, The Irish Times says: "Nationalist Ireland has worked itself into such a passion over the sufferings of the prisoners that a single death in Mount Joy Prison might have provoked an almost uncontrollable outburst of crime and lawlessness. This, at any rate, has been averted, and combined with a breathing space which it gives the new authorities in Dublin Castle, may be accepted as a justification for the climb-down, which in other circumstances would have been wholly ignominious."

"It is too soon to rejoice, for the recovery of several of the victims is gravely doubted," says The Freeman's Journal, "but the agony of a nation is relaxed, and the indignant passion which required strong counsel and self-control to check can now be directed into a resolute determination to break the system which could so outrage humanity and defy justice by a policy that might have betrayed the people into extremes of violence. The action of Irish Laborites had omniously stirred the rank and file of British labor, and a general strike began to cast its shadow beyond the Irish Sea."

The Irish Independent remarks: "Now that the Government has tardily given way in some measure to justice and humanity, let it, in God's name, indulge in no more wriggling, tyranny and pettishness in regard to treatment given in prison to political prisoners."

Company Bills at Ottawa

OTTAWA, April 15.—The bill to amend the International Loan Company bill, Winnipeg, was passed with an amendment yesterday bringing it in line with the model bill in regard to increase in capitalization. Other bills approved were those to incorporate the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Company and the Pacific Marine Insurance Company, both of Vancouver.

Y. W. C. A. Industrial Programme

CLEVELAND Ohio, April 15.—The industrial programme which is being discussed by the convention of the Young Women's Christian Association here today includes the following principles: Full political and economic equality for women; equal pay when participating in men's work; abolition of night work for women; the eight-hour day; abolition of child labor, and the right of collective bargaining.

REBEL AGAINST CLOTHING PRICES

Men in Many Parts of States Form Clubs to Promote Wearing of Overalls—Price of Latter Immediately Raised

NEW YORK, April 15.—Dispatches received here this morning show that the overall campaign of "protest against the high cost of clothing" is spreading rapidly throughout the Southern and Western States.

At Roanoke, Va., four different mass meetings of citizens were held yesterday and last night, and three overall clubs were organized with a total membership of 1,400.

At Greenville, S.C., many business and professional men have adopted the overall as their daily garb. Overall clubs have been organized in several nearby towns.

Every student at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, has pledged himself to wear overalls "until such time as the prices of clothing reach a reasonable figure."

Fifteen hundred men at Richmond, Va., are now members of the "Old Clothes and Overall Club."

The chairman of the Fair Price Commission at Atlanta, Ga., has called upon citizens to organize an overall club, and has purchased three thousand pairs of overalls, which will be sold to citizens at wholesale prices.

At Spokane, Wash., the fire chief and many city firemen reported for duty today in $3 khaki suits. The chief said hereafter regulation uniforms, which cost $72, would be required only on formal occasions.

An overall club is organized in Emporia, Kas. City firemen and policemen will wear denim, and Rev. G. C. Brogan, recently elected mayor, probably will be inaugurated wearing overalls.

Many business men at Roseburg, Ore., have signed an agreement pledging themselves to wear overalls and soft shirts until the price of clothing is reduced.

Several thousand members of the Loyal Order of Moose at Detroit donned overalls today, pursuant to a resolution adopted last night calling upon eight thousand members to wear rough raiment until the prices of clothing decline.

Incidentally, the retail price of overalls in cities where overall clubs have been organized has gone up from two to six dollars a pair.

SWITZERLAND SEEKS LOAN IN AMERICA

BERNE, April 15.—Some light is thrown on the question of the new Swiss loan to be floated in America.

Switzerland wants between twenty and thirty million dollars. The first American loan of $15,000,000, floated in 1915, produced interest of 7 3-10 per cent.

According to rumors, American bankers in Switzerland have recently purchased extraordinary amounts of German marks, the figure reaching thirty millions in one day. To this in part is attributed the rise in the exchange value of the mark from 8 to over 10, while the dollar fell from 5.58 to 5.50 Swiss francs.

INVITE AMERICANS TO WESTERN CONGRESS

MINNEAPOLIS, April 15.—A delegation of Canadian businessmen met with representatives of the Minneapolis Civic and Commercial Association here today and invited Minneapolis to co-operate in developing resources of Western Canada.

The visitors included Brigadier-General H. F. McDonald, manager of the Canadian industrial congress; Mayor M. A. Brown, Medicine Hat, and James Ramsay, of Edmonton.

They presented the problem of developing Canada as a move toward permanent world peace.

"Canada must be developed," said Mayor Brown, "and developed by the Anglo-Saxon race. That means people of the United States as well as Canada. The North American Continent working in harmony will mean that future wars will be impossible."

An invitation will be extended by the Canadians to the civic and commercial associations to make up a party of representative businessmen to attend the Canadian industrial congress of Alberta and British Columbia in June. The object, said Brigadier-General McDonald, is to bring American industry and manufacturers into Western Canada.

MEXICANS KIDNAP WOMAN OF EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex., April 15.—Mrs. Ida L. Sanford, 25 years old, wife of a horseshoer of the Eighth Cavalry, U.S.A., was kidnapped by two Mexicans near an El Paso park entrance yesterday and taken to Juarez, where, according to her story, told in a nervous way today, she was mistreated by fifteen Mexicans.

Mrs. Sanford says she was abandoned in the street late at night, where, being discovered by police, she was seized and taken to jail. She was released today and crossed the Rio Grande and told her story, which is being investigated.

ALLEGES SCANDAL IN SADDLE DEAL

Calgary Paper Says Government Purchased Cavalry Outfits at $70 and Resold Them to Company at $5

CALGARY, April 15.—The Morning Albertan tomorrow will carry the following story:

"Details of a deal of cavalry saddles in which the Militia Department purchased saddles there during the war at about $70 each outfit, kept them in store and then resold them to the Great West Saddlery Co. this year at $5 each outfit, were revealed by investigation today.

"The saddles, of which there are 700, it is said, had been wholesaled out to the second-hand stores of the city at an average of $14 an outfit, and are being retailed at prices which make the outfits cost $19 complete. An official at the military headquarters today admitted to The Albertan that the saddles had been resold at $5 each by the Government.

"The total loss suffered by the Government in the deal, after deducting the $3,500 they got on resale of the saddles, figures out at something more than $32,000. The saddles are in fairly good shape, and are valued, it is stated, by saddlery men, when new, at between $60 and $75. There has been a large demand for the saddles, one second-hand man having bought 50 and having now only a dozen left. The profit made by the saddlery company on the second-hand deal figures out at $6,300, they having paid $5 each for them, or $3,500 for the 700, and resold them at $14 on an average, or a total of $9,800, according to figures given by Mr. Hutchings. What percentage of profit the saddlery company made on the sale of the saddles to the Government in the first place is not known."

PAPER MAKERS HINT AT RETALIATION

NEW YORK, April 15.—A hint that retaliatory measures might be demanded by United States pulp and paper interests against Canada for restrictions on exportation of pulpwood was contained in an address delivered by George W. Sisson, Jr., president of the American Pulp & Paper Association, delivered at the annual convention of the association here today.

Deploring intimations from Canada that export of pulpwood from private lands might be curtailed, Mr. Sisson said:

"Canadian industry must have coal. Common fairness indicates that access to raw materials needed should not be denied on either hand."

ALLOWS VON BRINCKEN TO REMAIN IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Deportation proceedings brought against Wilhelm von Brincken, former military attache of the German consulate at San Francisco, who was sentenced in 1917 to two years in a federal prison for conspiring to foment revolution against British rule in India, were cancelled today by the Department of Labor.

The proceedings were based on charges that within five years of his entry into the United States von Brincken committed a crime involving "moral turpitude," out the Department of Justice ruled that a violation of neutrality was not subject to such an interpretation.

N. S. FARMERS OBJECT TO EIGHT-HOUR DAY

TRURO, April 15.—Last night's meeting of the Nova Scotia farmers' convention was turned into an uproar over the introduction of a resolution which pleaded that the increasing cost of living affected farmers as well as others, and it was, therefore, resolved that the Nova Scotia United Farmers "here assembled protest in the strongest manner against the eight-hour day as it would at once increase the cost of everything grown, manufactured, sold or in any way produced."

The discussion waxed hot at times, but the motion passed, only six delegates voting against it.

A resolution adopting the platform of the Canadian Council of Agriculture as the best policy for the advancement of the purposes of the party was adopted after discussion.

FLOATING DOCKS DUE AS COMPENSATION

PARIS, April 15.—The council of ambassadors at today's session received the report of the naval experts with regard to the German floating dock tonnage to be handed over in compensation for the scuttling of the German fleet at Scapa Flow. It developed that a total of 192,000 tons of this material had been discovered by the commission. A basis for the distribution of this tonnage among the Allies was adopted by the council.

The reply of the Hungarian peace delegation with regard to the peace terms submitted by the Allies to Hungary was taken up and further considered. The discussion of the reply, however, was not completed at this session.

The council has decided to ask for a report from the international commission appointed to supervise the drawing of the boundary between East Prussia and Poland in the Marienwerden district before deciding upon the date of the plebiscite to be held in that district under Articles 96 and 97 of the peace treaty.

Hospital for Telkwa

VANCOUVER, April 15.—Telkwa, the thriving town on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, will soon have a well equipped hospital to take care of the medical needs and requirements of the valley, as well as the country adjacent, which is quickly being settled. This information was given out today by Mr. J. G. Woon, vice-president and managing director of the Rattenbury Lands, Limited, who has been instrumental in having the matter brought to the attention of the Government.

ELEVENTH HOUR LEGISLATION

It is the disgrace of our legislative system, and the cause of many of the half-baked measures which find their way into the statute books, that a flood of bills should be introduced in the Provincial Legislature on the eve of prorogation. The Government is mainly responsible, for although it has ample time to prepare all its legislation in advance it never does so, and the present administration is to blame as much, if not more, than any of its predecessors in office. Little or no opportunity exists for constructive criticism of much of the legislation introduced during the past few days. The probability is that next session half the amending bills will be to make right mistakes perpetrated by eleventh hour legislation of this year. The Government must have created already something in the nature of a record in the way of amending legislation.

It is unfair to the Legislature to be asked to deal with the number of bills which are annually crowded into the dying hours of the session. There is absolutely no excuse for this procedure, for laziness on the part of Ministers by no means constitutes a defence. The Legislature as a body should protest, both in its own interest and in the interests of the people. Because of purely political speeches and acrimonious party discussion the present session has dragged its weary length over two months and a half, whereas all the legislation proposed, if it had been brought down at the right time, could have been disposed of in a business-like way in less than six weeks. The waste of time there has been is accentuated by the need which is now held to exist of finishing the session this week and of bundling through eleventh hour legislation with altogether inadequate consideration. The present Government promised to rectify this failing in the Provincial Legislature, but instead of doing so it is proving an even worse offender than its predecessor in office.

DISPOSITION OF ESTATES

The bill now before the Legislature to secure adequate provision for the maintenance of the wife and children of a testator, while designed with a kindly purpose and at the same time with a view to reducing the number of mothers' pensions which the Government will be called upon to pay through new social legislation, opens up a vista of court proceedings in which legacies may be squandered in legal fees. It is true no other power could decide in a matter of this kind save the courts, but there is a possibility, in some cases at least, that such a power will have the effect of destroying the very safeguard which the Government intends to institute. Incidentally, the new legislation is another blow at individual freedom of action, although in this particular instance that may not make it the mark of criticism.

The majority of people are aware that the conception of freedom of disposition by will is familiar in England, although in some other countries alienation is only permitted where the deceased leaves no widow or near relatives. Legal systems which are based on the Roman law provide restrictions such as are now proposed in British Columbia, but in France, which follows this course, the restriction has met with condemnation from eminent legal and economical authorities one of whom, M. Troplong, held that "un peuple n'est pas libre, s'il n'a pas le droit de tester, et la liberte du testament est la plus grande preuve de la liberte civile." In most if not all of its legislation during recent years British Columbia is a copyist, and there is nothing new or radical in the bill introduced yesterday. In legislating in the matter of wills, however, to the extent contemplated the Government is proposing to throw the question into the thickest hedge of legal entanglements and is claiming the right to dispose of property, subject to the decision of the courts, the title to which is not vested in the crown. So far as the new legislation will safeguard the rights of the immediate relatives of a deceased person it is good. So far as it squanders estates in legal fees there are at least doubts about the complete efficacy of the bill.

BACK TO SCARLET

Many events in the Great War proved that the ancient glory of the British Army had not departed. It has been decided that the traditional uniform shall not be discarded in favor of the somewhat sombre garb in which the soldiers of the King from the Mother Country and the Dominions beyond the seas achieved imperishable renown against the grim gray hosts of the Germans. Even in these days of change and revolution in thought and deed, there remains a spark of sentiment in the breasts of most people, and the announcement from the War Office that Tommy Atkins, wherever he may be, shall parade in the scarlet uniform which long has been the pride of the army and of the people will be received everywhere within the bounds of the Empire with gladness.

The date in the history of Britain when scarlet was adopted as a distinctive feature in the uniform of the army was probably in the times of Marlborough, the brilliant but somewhat unprincipled genius who was endowed with the faculty of winning victories against all comers on the continent of Europe whenever he set his mind seriously to the task. As Marlborough was born about 270 years ago, the scarlet tradition goes back nearly three centuries. A uniform with such a history obviously should not be lightly discarded. The Highland garb, which has adorned so many gallant soldiers and valiant fighters, is to be re-established in company with the scarlet tunic, and thus the British armies in every respect, at least during times of peace —which everyone prays may long endure—will be as they were before the stern necessity of the late conflict compelled the adoption of khaki.

THE CHILDREN'S AID

The Mayor and Aldermen, and all others interested in such institutions as the Children's Aid Society's Home and the Old Ladies' Home, should welcome any investigations which are likely to improve conditions in either of these places. It should be the constant object of the City Council to insure that no opportunity whatever should arise for charges in connection with the conduct of these institutions. To what extent the present charges are true in reference to the Children's Aid Society's Home we do not know. Possibly they are without foundation, but in connection with the Old Ladies' Home we may say that we doubt if everything possible is being done to render the lot of the inmates as happy as it could be made. The philanthropically disposed public may be in part to blame through not visiting the inmates often enough and forgetting to afford them those little comforts which are so much thought of under such conditions. There is hardly a doubt that they are insufficiently entertained. There is not enough relief afforded to the monotony of their lives. It is all very well for the Aldermen, or the Mayor, or anyone else directly interested to wax righteously indignant because charges are made regarding the administration of such institutions. That is not the way to accept responsibility, for it is an undoubted fact that wherever investigations, such as that suggested here, have been undertaken there has been an improvement in conditions. All concerned should be anxious to do the right thing, and since public moneys are involved the conduct of these institutions must always remain open to criticism.

CAPTAIN WALTER HOSE

The Government's present policy of retrenchment in the naval establishment of the Dominion includes, among other matters, the retirement of Vice-Admiral C. E. Kingsmill, who occupies the post of Director of the Naval Service. Despite the curtailment that is being effected, pending such time as a naval policy commensurate with the country's requirements is adopted, it may be assumed some successor to Vice-Admiral Kingsmill will be appointed, indeed a statement to this effect has been made at Ottawa. The record of Captain Walter Hose, formerly stationed at Esquimalt, then at Halifax, and latterly at Ottawa, in the naval service, entitles him to prominent consideration when a new Director is being appointed. In what has been accomplished in naval matters in the Dominion no name stands out so prominently as that of Captain Hose who, we believe, is admirably equipped in every way for the responsibilities of the position to which we have alluded. He possesses the training and the vision, knows the value of esprit de corps in the service, and his appointment would be heard of with pleasure in those parts of Canada where the value of naval defence is fully recognized. On both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts of the Dominion Captain Hose has had a varied experience. It will be a matter of especial gratification to all who know him here, and who acknowledge his capabilities, if he should be selected by the Federal Government as the new Director of the Naval Service.

Organizations in six states of the American Union have decided to meet one phase of the high cost of living by donning overalls and keeping them on until the cost of clothing falls. Many of the restaurants along the Coast have taken potatoes from their bills of fare and will keep them off until the price of potatoes comes down. The farmers of Nova Scotia, meeting as a political party, have almost unanimously pronounced against the eight-hour day because it must add to the high cost of living. An association has been formed in New York, with a prominent man at its head, whose purpose is to gather all people who do not belong to any "class" into one fold for mutual protection against factions said to dominate politics and business throughout the United States. Do these movements indicate an intention on the part of the worm to turn and bite?

The following from the New York World hardly supports the argument of an esteemed correspondent of The Colonist regarding influences which prevented American adoption of the Peace Treaty: "Three years ago, as the nation set forth on its noble mission, how many Americans even suspected that this was to be the end of it all—a glorious victory stained and tarnished by political intrigue and malice, and the government that won a great war revealed to the world as a government incapable of making peace seventeen months after the fighting had ceased? The Easter of 1917 was a proud Easter to Americans who loved their country and had faith in its destiny. The Easter of 1920 ought to be an Easter of Humiliation."

Snow in various parts of the Prairie Provinces may prove an inconvenience and even a nuisance but it is not necessarily an evil. Men from the wheat belt will be found unanimously of the opinion that late snow invariably portends bountiful crops.

The people of Sonora, a western province of Mexico, have adopted the principle of self-determination, and, as they occupy a remote and not very accessible part of the republic, the Mexican Government may have some difficulty in forcibly convincing them of the error of their ways.

Prison Cells Rented

The housing shortage in Berlin has become so serious that cells in the old city jail have been rented out by the municipality.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The British Colonist of April 16, 1870.)

Reception of Deluge Steam Fire Engine—Yesterday, one of the most unfavorable of the season in point of weather, was selected for the reception of the Deluge steamer, just landed from the barque Alpaca; but the boys in red made light of the wind, rain and dust, and appeared from the alacrity with which they manned the ropes of the new machine and braved the pelting storm as if they would wish for nothing better than an opportunity to wrestle with the fiery element. In 7.30 minutes steam was generated and the whistle blown. In 12.30 minutes after the fire was kindled the gauge showed 57 pounds, when the gates were opened and two streams of water thrown through 100 feet of hose from one-inch nozzles over the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Montreal Dispatch—Troops Mobilized—The First Regiment of Cavalry received orders on Saturday to hold themselves in readiness for active service. Volunteers have been called out all along the Eastern frontier and have been under arms since Saturday. Probably all the city corps will be ordered out immediately. The Government has received information that [illegible] are [illegible] for a raid.

BOLSHEVIKI FORCES OPPOSED IN CRIMEA

LONDON, April 15.—The Bolsheviki are meeting with strong opposition in their attempt to penetrate into the Crimean peninsula, it is indicated in an official statement on the soviet operations received from Moscow today. The statement says:

"In the Crimean sector our troops are advancing, and are engaged at Perekop (at the neck of the peninsula), where obstinate resistance is being offered.

"On the Caucasian front our regular troops have entered Derbent, on the Caspian Sea, about midway between Petrovsk and Baku."

Requests From Veterans

OTTAWA, April 15.—Refusal of a further cash bonus to returned men has brought a flood of letters on members of the Government. Requests are piling up for almost everything. One letter asks today for assistance in a divorce case and, a second wants a motor lorry in order that the applicant may go into business for himself. A third requests help to get mourning for a relative.

ONE GRAND POTLATCH FOR PARTY FAVORITES

Conservative Leader Enters Protest Against Cost of Government, the While Taxpayers Overburdened

Protest against the increase in the salaries of officials who, he asserted, were political favorites, was voiced by Mr. W. J. Bowser, K. C., Conservative Leader, in the Legislature yesterday morning when the bill to amend the Audit Act to permit of increasing the salary of Comptroller-General Mouat from $5,000 to $6,000 was up for its second reading.

Mr. John Hart, Minister of Finance, in moving the second reading, explained that Mr. Mouat had been promised by the former Premier, the late Mr. Brewster, that when the financial affairs of the Government had been brought into a more settled condition, the salary would be placed upon the same level as that paid in Alberta, namely, $6,000.

Mr. Bowser declared that at this late hour in the session, when bills were being rushed down, he did not propose to offer any extended remarks, but he pointed out that the Opposition had consistently objected to the extravagant salaries being paid, especially to political appointees. In view of the tremendous increase in outlays—this year it was planned to spend $17,410,000, the largest budget in the history of the Province—the Government was facing a deficit of nearly four millions. Now, apparently, in the last days of the session, the Comptroller-General, as an afterthought, after having increased salaries of the other officials friendly to the administration, was coming forward with an increase for himself.

Political Favorites

Mr. Bowser pointed to the fact that the former Auditor-General, an official for many years in the service of the Province, was receiving $4,200 when he was executed by the present Government and his place taken by Mr. Mouat under the new title of Comptroller-General. The latter had been brought from Alberta, where his political activities had been in the Liberal interests, he having been defeated Liberal candidate at Pincher Creek. Defeated Liberal candidates were well looked after by the present Government, Mr. Bowser stated, and at the time of his appointment there had been considerable comment.

Mr. Bowser recalled that when Mr. Mouat's salary had been increased to $5,000 the statement had been made in the House that that increase was deemed to be necessary, because Mr. Mouat was an official appointed by the Legislature and could not be dismissed except by act of the Legislature, and the importance of the position waranted that salary. But now, under the excuse of some old-time promise, the Government was found touching up the salary of every Liberal appointee in a sort of general potlatch, the while the thumb-screw was being applied with ever-increasing pressure upon the already overburdened taxpayers. He considered $5,000 was sufficient for the position. Doubtless in a year or two, the Comptroller-General would be receiving as much as the Premier of the Province. Because of its belief in the necessity for economy at the present time and of keeping outlays within proper limits, the Opposition, Mr. Bowser stated, would vote against the second reading of the bill.

On a division called for by the Opposition the second reading of the bill was authorised, the Conservative Opposition being supported by three Liberal members, Messrs. A. M. Manson, Joseph Walters and David Whiteside.

P. G. E. Loans

The two bills to provide for loans aggregating $8,800,000 for P. G. E. purposes, and which have been on the order paper for the past month or more, were given their second reading after very brief explanatory remarks by Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance. One permits the Government to borrow $4,000,000 to carry on construction work on the Government-owned line to Prince George, a distance of about 150 miles from the present end of steel, and to secure needed equipment. The other provides for borrowing $4,400,000 to take up the note given by former P. G. E. interests to the Union Bank of Canada, which note was last year taken up by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, upon instructions of the Government, and is now being carried by the latter bank.

Hon. Mr. Hart explained that while the public debt would show an apparent increase of that amount, the contingent liabilities of the Province to the amount of $4,000,000 worth of P. G. E. stock which had been hypothecated for the loan with the Union Bank and which will now come into the hands of the Government, will be reduced by that figure. The amount to be paid as charged upon the new loan would be offset by $270,000 in interest on the P. G. E. stock.

The second reading of the bill to amend the Revenue Act was also approved. It provides for power to the finance department to make repayments of amounts wrongly or mistakenly taken as revenue.

The Water Act, a bulky measure, was greatly expedited in its committee stage by the arrangement whereby Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, and Mr. J. W. Jones, Conservative member for South Okanagan, had previously met and picked out the contentious sections upon which any discussion was likely to occur, thus saving the necessity of taking up the entire text section by section. The bill was practically put through and progress reported.

The bill to amend the Administrator's Act was killed when the two sections of which it was composed were voted down, leaving but the title remaining, and that also was defeated, the technical way of putting a measure out of business. It was designed to grant powers to trust companies to act as administrators.

Mr. Whiteside led the opposition against the measure, claiming the official administrators now in existence were capably performing their duties and to approve of the bill would take away from them the chief part of their work.

Insurance

By a vote of 18 to 7 the House, on a division, approved of the amendment proposed by Mr. George Bell, Victoria, to the B. C. Fire Insurance Act, whereby the privilege now existing to insurers of mercantile and commercial risks of securing a three year premium instead of one, as the present act required, was extended to the premises in which such mercantile risks are held. "The innocent little amendment" introduced last year, Mr. Bell claimed, had done away with the three year term, which gave the insured the right of three years' protection at the cost of a two years' premium. The opposition which developed to the bill made Mr. Bell wonder, when the fact that the House was unanimous on the second reading was considered, whether there had not been a "nice big lobby" instituted in an effort to defeat the measure. The amendment would be a relief to the public, which had, he asserted, been chafing a wee bit under the arbitrary rules of the underwriters.

In the debate on the second reading of the bill designed to permit municipalities to jointly acquire and operate cemeteries, a measure introduced by Mr. George Bell, objection was taken by Mr. F. J. A. MacKenzie that the terms of the bill should be incorporated in the new Municipal Act amendments bill rather than in a special act.

Mr. H. C. Hall also objected to the fact that the bill permitted a municipal council to borrow moneys without the necessity of submitting the by-law therefor to the ratepayers, a very dangerous departure from present municipal practice, he held.

Mr. Charles Nelson got hearty applause when he protested against bills being brought down at this late stage in the session when they could as easily have been tabled a month earlier.

The Provincial Elections Act was re-opened and a number of minor amendments further discussed.

Colonel McIntosh pressed his amendment to provide that in electoral ridings for which only one member was to be returned electors should be permitted to exercise a first and second choice, thus obviating, in his opinion, the possibility of a candidate being elected when, as a matter of fact, he did not secure an actual majority of the total votes cast. If the Premier would not incorporate the principle in the bill this year, he urged that an assurance should be given that it would be put in the bill next session.

Premier Oliver stated that at next year's session he would offer no opposition to Colonel McIntosh's suggestion being considered by the Legislature, but beyond that he did not feel he could go.

ROGER C. SULLIVAN DIES AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 15.—Messages of sympathy from public officials and men prominent in public and political life throughout the country today poured into the home of Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic leader, who died here yesterday of bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. Sullivan, who was 59, led the movement at the Baltimore convention in 1912 resulting in the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for the presidency.

Although Sullivan was "read out" of the Democratic party several times by William J. Bryan and condemned by his political enemies at home as a "boss," he held the Democratic leadership in Illinois for some years.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—President Wilson today sent the following telegram to Mrs. Roger C. Sullivan:

"You have my deepest and warmest sympathy. I shall never forget what a good friend your husband was to me."

HAS COUNTER-CHARGE AGAINST THE MAYOR

Ald. Fullerton Comes Back at His Worship on Independence Issue After Consulting City Hall Files

Ald. W. F. Fullerton, who was accused of sham independence by Mayor Porter at Monday night's meeting of the City Council, yesterday came back with a counter attack upon his worship.

"The Mayor is guilty of everything that he accused me of, and even to a greater degree," declared Ald. Fullerton, as he proceeded to reveal his story.

"The Mayor had a lot to say about me, Monday," said the Alderman. "He didn't mention my name, but anyone could see to whom he was referring. He rebuked me for charging that I was not invited to a taxation conference because I was in the habit of being independent. Then he went on to say that he liked to see independence in aldermen, but that he couldn't see it in aldermen who would sign petitions prior to election time. He said that such action stultified aldermen, and hinted directly at me.

"Well, I have been looking up the files," the alderman continued. "I have found things out that I wish I was certain of last Monday. I have found out that the Mayor himself, when campaigning for the mayoralty in 1919, signed a petition from the Allied Printing Trades Council. Furthermore, I have found out that the Mayor, during the 1917 election contest, publicly endorsed the attitude of the Retrenchment Association and also attached his signature to a petition circulated by the Prohibition party. These things ought to be known. As long as the Mayor has told half the story, we should have the whole of it, and there it is. If signing things has stultified me or any other alderman, it has also stultified the Mayor. Either that, or the Mayor's statement Monday night is all wrong."

PROMISE TO CONSIDER AERIAL LEAGUE'S NOTE

Request of Local Branch That Squadron Be Established Here Will Have Attention at Ottawa

Mr. Harry Brown, secretary of the Victoria branch of the Aerial League of Canada, has just received from the Canadian Air Board a definite promise of consideration of the request, recently made by the local branch of the league to the board, that a squadron of the projected Dominion Air Force should be established in the vicinity of this city. The promise is contained in a letter to Mr. Brown from Mr. O. M. Biggar, vice-president of the Canadian Air Board.

This letter is the result of a communication to the Air Board following a recent meeting of the Victoria members of the Aerial League. At that meeting it was suggested that unless vigorous representations were made to the board, Vancouver Island might be overlooked when the time came for the establishment of the proposed force. Mr. Brown was also instructed by the meeting to find out from the board what is to be the disposition of the machines given to Canada by the British Government. Mr. Biggar's reply is as follows:

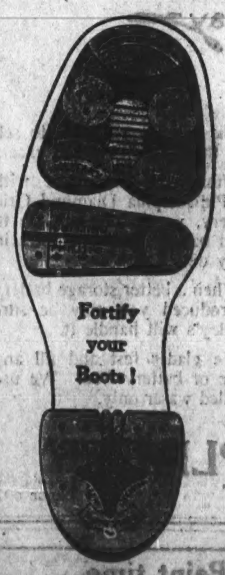

"The question of the advisability or otherwise of establishing a reserve training squadron will be considered by the headquarters staff of the Canadian Air Force when this is organized, and your suggestion that such a squadron should be established at Victoria will be carefully considered.

"No definite plans have yet been made with regard to the machines included in the gift from the Air Ministry, but the probability now seems to be that these will all be required for the civil duties to be undertaken and the provision of equipment for the Canadian Air Force Training Station."

LANCASTER, Ohio, April 15.—Police today were searching for five older boys who last evening attacked Charles Kneller, a 10-year-old newsboy, bound him to a stake, piled kindling and newspapers about him and after starting a fire left him to his fate. A small girl called Mrs. A. F. Mowery, living nearby, and she rescued the boy, who was badly burned.

City and District in Brief

Local Exchange.—Local banks yesterday quoted sterling as follows: Buying at 4.33, and selling at 4.34¼.

Putting in Float.—The Saanich Council decided last night to have a float in the Hudson's Bay anniversary pageant in May.

Bank Clearings.—Bank clearings for the week ending yesterday were $3,238,802, as compared with $1,990,329 in the corresponding week of 1919.

Plume Shop Robbed.—The South African Plume Shop, on Yates Street, was entered on Tuesday night and a small amount of cash taken.

Thursday's Chimney Fire.—The city firemen were called out at 11:36 a.m. yesterday to a chimney fire on the premises at 37 Avalon Street. The fire was put out without trouble.

Team Wages.—Teams hauling for Saanich this year will be paid $8 a day for a two-yard load and $7.50 a day for a yard-and-a-half load.

Council Meeting Off.—The special meeting of the City Council that was to have been held tonight to consider plans for increasing municipal revenue has been cancelled.

Board of Trade Council.—The first meeting of the new council of the Board of Trade will be held some time next week, probably Tuesday, it was announced yesterday.

Married Men to Have Preference.—That married resident taxpayers should have the preference in employment by the municipality was the decision of the Saanich Works Committee last night, a resolution being passed accordingly.

Dance Tonight.—The V.A.D.C. will hold their last card party of the season in Carter's Hall, this evening, at 8 o'clock. Everything possible has been done to make this a success, and the members are cordially invited to attend.

Tea for Parents of Boys.—A daffodil tea is being given on Saturday afternoon at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, for the parents of the boys who are members of the Boys' Naval Brigade. Tea will be served from 3 o'clock until 6. The proceeds will go to the Naval Brigade.

Burglars Rob City Bakery.—Clay's Bakery, on Fort Street, was entered by burglars some time during the night of last Tuesday. Owing to the fact that the safe had been left unlocked, the thieves were able to get away with $150 in bonds, besides some cash.

Young Ladies Guests at Banquet.—The On-We-Go's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church will be the hosts at a banquet this evening with the Pas-a-Pas Class, consisting of young ladies only, as the guests of the occasion. The Sunday School has been decorated for the function and the tables specially illuminated. Seventy people are expectd to sit down.

Successful Concert.—A very interesting and successful concert was given under the auspices of "Portia," the girls' debating society of the Victoria High School, in the school auditorium, on Wednesday afternoon, April 14. It was clear that warm enthusiasm and keen interest was shown by the students, as the attendance was excellent.

Was Popular Employee.—Among the many beautiful gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. George Murray (nee Velma Greenwood), whose marriage took place on Wednesday, was a handsome set of Community silver, the gift of the staff of David Spencer, Ltd., while other attractive presents were received from employees in various dpartments of the store.

Cadet Corps Status.—A committee composed of Comrades Walter Bapty, A. D. Macdonald and Wilby was appointed by the British Campaigners at their meeting last night to interview the Esquimalt School Board with a view to ascertaining the status of the Lampson Street School Cadet Corps. The matter came up through a question addressed by Major Macdonald.

Cup or Shield.—The secretary of the British Campaigners' Association has been instructed to get designs and particulars as to cost of a suitable cup or shield to be presented by the association for competition by the various divisions of the Boys' Naval Brigade under similar conditions to those existing in connection with the Cadet Corps competition shield.

Change of Date.—The numerous patrons of the weekly "the-dansants" at the Empress Hotel are asked to note that the affair is to be held on Friday afternoon instead of Saturday this week, the change of day being necessitated by special arrangements on this occasion which make it impossible to hold the dance on the usual day. Dancing will be from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Concert at Esquimalt.—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Great War Veterans are giving a concert to the boys at Esquimalt Hospital tonight. All members who intend being present are asked to meet at 7:15 at the Sailors' Home, corner of Admirals Road, and bring refreshments. These latter may be left at the Bee Hive and Miss Lewis will see that they are delivered.

Saskatoon Man Dies Here.—Mr. Peter Schewller, who was removed by the City Health Officer from a hotel on Johnson Street to the Jubilee Hospital on Wednesday, died at the hospital yesterday. He had been suffering from acute diabetes. The deceased man was practically unknown in this city, and the police are awaiting instructions from relatives in Saskatoon as to the disposition of the body.

The Daily Prohibitionist.—Distressed statesmen would do well to explore the untrodden fastnesses of the Prohibition Act, in their sorrowful search for more revenue, for as far as the City Police Court is concerned the act functions in the manner of the scriptural cruse of oil. Yesterday's example was supplied by the courtesy of A. Benson, who pleaded guilty to the most frequent offence under the act, and paid the not less frequent penalty of $5.

Engineering Institute.—At the meeting of the Victoria branch, Engineering Institute of Canada, at the Provincial Library Wednesday evening, E. P. Girdwood, M. E. I. C., gave a paper on River Protection, Roads, Bridges and General Engineering Construction, chiefly in British Columbia. The lecture was illustrated with about 120 photographs. The branch will close the season with a reception on April 26 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The Charge and The Charge.—Walter Bates, charged in the City Police Court yesterday with leaving his motor car standing without proper lights, immediately signified his willingness to expedite the course of justice by pulling a roll of bills from his pocket, and inquired what was the charge. Magistrate Jay obligingly repeated the language of the official charge sheet. The accused then explained that he had meant to inquire how much he was to pay. And this time the magistrate explained that the charge would be $5.

Lady Alderson Chapter.—An informal meeting of the Lady Alderson Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held yesterday afternoon, at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Garrett, Hampshire Road. There was a good attendance of members, and Mrs. David Miller, secretary of the Municipal Chapter, was a welcome guest. Mrs. Pierpont, the Echoes' secretary, gave an interesting report of the last Municipal Chapter meeting, and Mrs. Ricketts reported that the portrait of the Prince of Wales, donated by Mrs. Morley to the chapter for the North Ward School, was to be presented next Friday afternoon, fuller details of the event to be announced later in the newspapers. Plans for future work included preliminary steps toward holding a garden party in mid-Summer.

At K. of C. Hall.—An enjoyable evening was spent last night in the K. of C. Hall under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus Lodge and the Ladies' Altar Society. Fifteen tables played progressive 500 until after 10 o'clock when refreshments were served previous to the dancing which concluded the evening's entertainment. The floor was in excellent condition for dancing, and the party was considerably augmented by late arrivals. Newitt's orchestra furnished the music. The committee having the arrangements in charge were under the chairmanship of Mr. Jack Denny and included Messrs. Eddie Clark, George Ruck, P. A. Raynor, J. Fitzgerald and two boys of the Naval Brigade.

The Aeroplane Telephone

Two years ago it was the common belief that telephony aboard an airship was impossible. How could one talk into a transmitter with one or more unmuffled engines roaring but a few feet away? It has remained for two inventors to develop a really successful and universally practical transmitter for aeroplane use. At first these inventors, like most others at work on the problem, attempted to unmuffle their transmitters so as to exclude engine noise. Then one day the inventors decided on a daring move; they gave up the idea of muffling the transmitter and, instead, made it absolutely open or stripped of casing of all kinds. They permitted all noises to come in contact with the transmitter—at the front and at the back, all round, so as to allow the sound waves to act equally free on both sides of the diaphragm. The result has been the balancing of all extraneous sounds, since the waves strike the diaphragm with equal force on both sides, hence neutralising each other; while the voice waves strike the diaphragm on one side only, temporarily destroying this balance and therefore affecting the circuit.

There is no real distinction between doves and pigeons.

OPPOSITION CRITICISM MAKES HIM STUBBORN

Attorney-General Farris Now Insists Upon Retention of Provision Giving Medical Men Right to Take Affidavit

The Prohibition Act amendment bill was dealt with in its committee stage at yesterday afternoon's session of the Legislature. The provisions regulating sales of near-beer, etc., were held over for further consideration.

Mr. George Bell questioned the advisability of granting to a doctor the power to take the affidavit of another doctor who felt called upon to prescribe more than the eight ounces.

Attorney-General Farris stated that at one time he had not much cared whether that requirement were in the act or not, but in view of the Opposition criticism and declaration that such a provision would be violated; he now considered the doctor should be put in the position where he should have the responsibility cast upon him.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite moved to strike out the restriction limiting the monthly total of prescriptions to be issued by a doctor to 100, declaring it to be an outrage for the Legislature to say how far the doctors should go. If it were not possible to trust the doctors to issue prescriptions legally he saw little value in the provision.

Hon. Mr. Farris replied that the general council of the Provincial Medical Association had asked that the 100 limit be imposed. No doubt the doctors desired some relief from the public demand for prescriptions.

Mr. J. S. Cowper thought the reductions to eight ounces with the attendant increase in price would be sufficient to reduce the number of prescriptions issued.

Extracts

Mr. Hawthornthwaite's amendment was defeated and likewise one he offered to eliminate part of the section relating to the restrictions on the sale of essences and extracts. It was such articles, he claimed, which were responsible for much harm, and the House should make a clean job of it and eliminate the sale rather than permit, as proposed, druggists, upon the order of a physician, to sell extract of ginger or Hoffman 'sdrops (spirits of ether compound). He pointed to the spread of the drug habit and argued the above ingredients should not be allowed to be sold. His amendment was defeated.

Mr. Cowper suggested that in respect of stocks of liquor in warehouses the operations of the act should be postponed until the taking of the proposed plebiscite.

Hon. Mr. Farris replied the Prohibitionists had urged the bill should become effective before the taking of the referendum. Personally he believed liquor held in warehouses here in other than export warehouses is being illegally held and not for export but for sale to the homes of the Province.

Mr. David Whiteside advocated a provision that liquor held by municipalities should be handed over to the Prohibition Commissioner, by whom credit to such municipalities would be given and against such credit hospitals requiring liquor could draw a supply.

Hon. Mr. Farris held that under the present act the only authority to hold such liquor was the Province, though he knew some of the municipalities thought otherwise. He did not consider it to be sound policy that the municipalities should be allowed to peddle liquor to the hospitals.

Mr. Whiteside also suggested, in view of the well-known fact that liquor is being smuggled across the international boundary line, that the motor cars in which the liquor is seized should also be forfeited.

Fine in Lieu of Jail

The amendment presented by Dr. Sutherland providing that when the present change allowing a fine for first conviction for selling, as opposed to the penalty of a jail term under the existing act, comes into effect that there should be open to those then serving jail terms for convictions under the old act opportunity to appeal to the convicting magistrate for release from jail upon payment of a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $500.

Hon. Mr. Farris opined that when the new bill becomes effective there will be people in jail held on convictions under the old section, and he expected he would be deluged with applications for leniency. In view of the more lenient provisions of the bill he considered Dr. Sutherland's amendment was timely.

Mr. George Bell thought he might be misconstrued, but he did not think the amendment erred on the side of leniency. It was not the intent of prohibitionists to bring punishment upon the people but to prevent the abuse of liquor. It had always been his opinion that a jail term for first offenders was too severe and he welcomed the amendment.

The time for the coming into effect of the sections covering prescriptions and those relating to brewers manufacturing near-beer was postponed to June 1 next.

Progress was reported on the bill.

"KILL-JOYS"

Constipation, Headache, Colds, Biliousness ended with "Cascarets"

Nothing takes the joy out of life quicker than a disordered liver or waste-clogged bowels. Don't stay sick, bilious, headachy, constipated. Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, your breath bad and stomach sour. Why not spend a few cents for a box of Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest laxative-cathartic you ever experienced? Cascarets never gripe, sicken or inconvenience one like Salts, Oil, Calomel or harsh pills. They work while you sleep.

IN MEMORIAM

(Contributed)

The news of the sudden death of Gladys, the youngest and dearly-loved child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyons, 1058 Pembroke Street, was heard with great sorrow by all who knew her. A high school girl, lately a pupil of George Jay School, she was cut off in the bloom and promise of youth.

By many good qualities she had endeared herself to her schoolmates and older friends, and she faced death with a courage and faith rare in one so young. The sympathy of a large circle of friends goes out to her mother and brother, Ronald, here, and to her father, sister Hermina and brothers Norman and Keith, who received the sad tidings of her death in Penticton.

MAY RETALIATE ON CHILD HOME CHARGES

It Is Claimed That Investigation Will Give Opportunity for Some Crushing Counter-Offensive, Aldermen Say

People who have been slinging mud at the Children's Aid Society's home are likely to have some of it thrown back at them unless they desist, in the opinion of some of the aldermanic members of the society.

These members keenly resent the charges hurled against the administration of the home, particularly because of the general and non-specific character of the statements made. They hold that what has been said so far is merely a lot of loose talk, likely to influence public sentiment against an efficiently-run institution without offering any basis for retaliation or repudiation.

The fact that few, if any, definite charges have been made has led these members, among them being the Mayor, to favor the investigation being fought for by School Trustee Mrs. Andrews. They are beginning to feel that an open investigation is the only vehicle that will bring out all the facts, and they are not afraid of what will come out.

"Let them come on with their charges," said one of the prominent members of the society yesterday. "We know we can clear ourselves, and we are equally confident that we can come back with counter-statements that will put a decidedly different light on the situation. We welcome the investigation. It will give us an opportunity for saying things that up till the present we have been reluctant to say."

Attorney-General J. W. de B. Farris has not yet reached a decision as to whether the probe shall be undertaken.

GIFTED ARTISTS IN JOINT RECITAL SOON

Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green and Miss Mary Izard to Play at Royal May 13

Anyone who was present a few months ago at the Royal Victoria Theatre to hear the delightful programme given then by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green and Miss Mary Izard will be more than delighted to learn that these two gifted artists are to give a joint recital on the evening of Thursday, May 13, at the same place. As Miss Izard is leaving early in June for England, this will probably be the last opportunity the Victoria public will have for some time of hearing the violinist, who has so thoroughly endeared herself to the music-loving public of this city since her arrival here last Summer from the Old Land. Mrs. Green also expected to attend Leopold Godowsky's master class to be held in June in Kansas City, so the forthcoming recital, which is to be under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club, should be made the occasion of a special ovation as a mark of Victoria's appreciation of the two talented ladies who have so often afforded concert-goers pleasant moments.

SNOWSTORM VISITS PRAIRIE COUNTRY

MOOSE JAW, April 15.—Citizens were forced to walk to work this morning as the result of the worst blizzard of the whole season. Snow began to fall late last night and being accompanied by a high wind, it was not long before the street car service was stalled. Snow fell all night, and this morning it is from six to twelve inches deep on the level, while some of the drifts reach many feet. The snowplows on the street car line make little headway owing to the wet nature of the snow.

Regular street traffic was almost at a standstill, while pedestrians found it a laborious task to get to their offices and stores.

In the outskirts the full fury of the storm was felt and many houses were absolutely snowed in, while it was impossible for children to go to school owing to the deep drifts which in places were higher than the children.

CALGARY, April 15.—The weather is still cool. Snow fell during the night, and in the Calgary district it will delay Spring operations at least another day. It will be nearly a fortnight before seeding can be begun in Central and Northern Alberta.

SASKATOON, April 15.—Two inches of snow fell last night, followed by a slight sleet this morning. The temperature is rising.

NAVY LEAGUE FETE ON BOARD RAINBOW

Old Ship Quitting Service in a Blaze of Glory—Three-Day Function Planned to Commence King's Birthday

The fates have willed it that the good old cruiser Rainbow shall end her days in a blaze of merry-making that will go strangely with the grim, grey hulk which was put together for the business of war. The Navy League of Canada has received the consent of Vice-Admiral Kingsmill to use the ship as the scene for a gorgeous fete which promises to be something unique in the history of this city. Gaily decorated, the Rainbow will resound to the sounds of dancing, music, a cabaret, in all probability, and various other entertainments.

Plans for the fete are still in embryo, but it is likely that it will be of three days' duration and will probably commence on June 3, the King's Birthday.

The Rainbow is now having the stores taken out of her at Esquimalt. The Navy League hopes to bring the warship around to the inner Harbor for the occasion. Everything will be done in naval style, the navy permeating the fete throughout. Proceeds of the fete will go to the Navy League of Canada.

Mr. P. A. Rayner is now the organizer and secretary of the Victoria branch of the Navy League. He was the secretary-treasurer of various large corporations in the East before joining the army during the war. He had six brothers serving in the trenches, one being killed. One is now town major in Pauz, Germany.

Local Branch of Navy League Passes Resolution Advocating Dominion-Wide Educational Movement

The commencement of a campaign of education throughout Canada for the purpose of arousing the people to a realization of the needs of a Canadian navy was advocated by a resolution passed in an executive meeting of the Victoria branch of the Navy League executive this week. The resolution is as follows:

"Whereas, the supreme importance of sea power has been again demonstrated in the Great War; and,

"Whereas, we believe that Canada must take her full share in the maintenance of the naval defence of the Empire, especially in Pacific waters; and,

"Whereas, there would seem to be no intention on the part of the Federal Government to lay down a definite naval policy:

"Therefore, be it resolved, that this Victoria branch of the Navy League of Canada ask the Provincial Division of British Columbia to request the Dominion Council to carry out as soon as possible a co-ordinate campaign of education throughout Canada with a view to arousing public opinion as to the importance of the whole matter as above, and as a first step in such a campaign that the Dominion Council be asked to arrange for every branch of the Navy League in Canada to hold mass meetings on a day to be fixed, and to pass at said meetings resolution or resolutions in the form perpared by the Dominion Council."

Marriage of Daniel R. Wallace, of Ocean Falls, and Miss Muriel Carlow, of Luxton, Celebrated

Miss Muriel M. Carlow, daughter of Mr. W. W. Carlow, of Luxton, B. C., was married to Mr. Daniel R. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace, of Ocean Falls, B. C., at St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, yesterday afternoon. The Rev. W. B. Baugh-Allen officiated.

A large number of friends witnessed the ceermony. The bride was accompanied by Miss Lottie Fuller and was given away by her uncle, Mr. E. Carlow. Mr. E. F. Hollins supported the groom.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Sharcott, 934 Lyall Street. The couple were the recipients of many gifts. They will make their home in Ocean Falls, leaving on Sunday morning and going via Seattle and Vancouver.

EXPORT OF LIQUOR TO CEASE IN ALBERTA

EDMONTON, April 15.—Export liquor houses in Alberta will go out of business under the provisions of the act just passed by the Provincial Legislature on May 10, thirty days after the passage of the act being allowed them before the closing takes place.

Sixty-seven export houses now doing business within the Province will be affected by the closing order. It is understood that liquor exporters propose testing out the new legislation, and will possibly appeal to the courts.

According to the terms of the new act only Dominion bonded warehouses will be permitted in Alberta after May 10. Licences for such establishments will be issued from Ottawa after consultation with the Alberta Attorney-General, whose sanction, it is understood, must be secured before licences are issued. The Attorney-General has already intimated that he will not sanction such licences.

Fire in Grande Prairie.

GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta., April 15.—Fire which caused losses amounting to about $40,000 destroyed the Spencer, Donald, Patterson and Morrison buildings and did damage to adjoining structures. Ten different business concerns suffered losses in amounts varying from $600 to $10,000. The fire broke out in the basement of the Spencer building, and the heat was so intense that the volunteer brigade fought some considerable time before the flames could be gotten under control.

Seals Plentiful.

JUNEAU, Alaska, April 14.—Residents of Sitka say that the herds of seal migrating northward toward Bering Sea this Spring are greater than they have been in years and that the migration is three weeks ahead of its usual time. Countless thousands of the seal have been passing Sitka. Government officials say the great size of the migratory herd is evidence that the Government's protective measures have been effective.

Saving Paper

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 15.—The Milwaukee Journal's mail editions were issued today without an advertisement, eight pages of solid reading matter. The editions for the city and the "fifty-mile zone" were issued as usual, thirty pages. This is The Journal's way of meeting the emergency paper shortage. By this plan all readers received the news and the advertisers got full services in the main buying area.

Poland-American Service.

DANZIG, April 15.—Arrangements with American shipping interests for a fast Polish-American passenger and freight service between United States ports and the Baltic have been completed by Polish naval authorities.

positive as returned soldiers, performed the assessment work on these claims. On the White Mouse group the soldier prospectors struck native silver, but were unable in the time at their disposal to go below the capping of the vein and prove its values.

With the coming of snow last Winter, the brothers came south to Victoria, and tried to interest various citizens of this city in the claims. They had no success among the men who function in the mining industry by putting gold into the ground in order to take more gold out of it. They went then in their search for the sinews of the prospector's war to the cities of Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and Spokane. Their ill success in those places was a repetition of their experience in Victoria.

Successful Negotiations

With the proverbial persistence of your true prospector, and undeterred by their previous failure in that city, they went three weeks ago once more to Vancouver, along with Mr. Benson, senior. There at last they managed to interest in their claims three well-known business men of the Mainland metropolis, Messrs. J. Cromie, R. T. Elliott and John Coughlan, the latter the senior partner in the big steel shipbuilding firm of John Coughlan & Son. This eventuated in the sale of the claims to these gentlemen for a handsome consideration, the Bensons, father and sons, however, retaining a one-third interest in the property.

After these negotiations had been completed, the Bensons produced for the consideration of the new syndicate a written offer from certain well-known mine operators to bond the White Mouse claims for $50,000. This offer had been received during the progress of the transactions which resulted in the formation of the Vancouver syndicate. But as the brothers did not wish to make a separate deal at that time with regard only to the White Mouse group, they deferred consideration of the offer until they were in possession of their new partners in the ownership of the property.

The syndicate, while naturally very pleased by the news of the offer, which confirmed their judgment of the ultimate value of the property they had just acquired, determined to take a sporting chance on the claims proving to be of more value to them than the amount of the offer; and decided to do more development work on the property, and will this season spend several thousand dollars in exploration work.

Offer $100,000 Bond

Again, and as showing how the gods of the miner's fortune delight in princeliness when they do deign to smile, another mining man, representing English capitalists, last Tuesday called at the Victoria residence of Mr. Benson, senior, and made a very handsome offer for the property. This last offer was made in ignorance of the fact that the Bensons had disposed of two-thirds of their interest in the claims to the Vancouver syndicate. But the discovery of that fact did not prejudice the offer, which still stands, and as to terms is a cash payment of $2,500 for a 60-day option to bond the White Mouse claims for $100,000.

This latest offer will be submitted to the Vancouver partners of the Bensons, but judging by the statements made by those gentlemen as to their estimate of the prospective value of the claims, it is not likely to be accepted. The sons of Mr. Benson are favorably known in this city and throughout the Province as worthy sons of a worthy father, and their comrades who served with them overseas, as well as those who rejoice in the good fortune of good prospectors, will be glad to hear that these veterans have thus made good in the fascinating pursuit of the miner. One of these brothers was formerly assistant manager of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and is now purchasing agent for one of the largest of the Stewart mining and trading companies.

A Hint to Veterans

The encouragement contained in this account of the good fortune of two sons of this city is not merely to the address of all prospectors of this Province in general, but it is in particular a hint to those able-bodied veterans of the war, who have so far found it impossible to settle down in the pursuits of civil life. The efforts now making by the Dominion Government to provide help to those ex-soldiers who have a fancy for the free life of healthy work and outdoor adventure possible to the prospector, it is hoped will result in a great number of young, fit veterans turning their attention to the great task of pioneering in the mining industry of British Columbia. The big financial rewards do not come every day, or to all who play the fascinating game; but they come often enough to persistent work to make the game worth playing. And the game at the worst is better from every viewpoint than to make one in the overcrowded labor market of the cities.

Dominion Raynsters

"Made-in-Canada" Raincoats

—At Popular Prices

—For Every Member of the Family

"DOMINION RAYNSTERS" came into being in response to a pressing need.

Men, women and children wanted coats that were absolutely waterproof, and at the same time, cut on graceful lines, well tailored, comfortable and serviceable.

How well "DOMINION RAYNSTERS" have filled this need is shown by the large number of stores carrying these double service coats, as well as the steadily increasing demand for them by every member of the family.

"DOMINION RAYNSTERS" are not merely shower-proof—the cloth is not "treated", but is "rubber lined" and made waterproof. They have the same style and finish as you see in the custom-made top coats.

BILLS POURING DOWN IN THE FINAL HOUR

Legislators Kept Busy Tackling Grist of Measures Being Thrown at Them for Many and Varied Objects

With the legislators striving to end their duties by tomorrow afternoon at latest, and the House devoting its entire time to wading through a grist of bills that, with the close of the session almost at hand, is showing considerable reduction in number, still new measures are being hurled at their weary heads, and the final scenes of the 1920 Legislature will see a repetition of the same old scenes which have marked previous sessions. Most of the bills being brought down now are of minor importance.

The Weekly Half-Holiday Act was introduced by Attorney-General Farris, who explained that two years ago a bill was brought down to provide that in the week in which certain specified public holidays fell the half-holiday should not be held. But recently, he noticed, the City Council had passed a by-law eliminating the King's Birthday as a public holiday to be observed. How far the Council could go in that direction he was not certain. It was generally understood thas His Majesty had evinced a desire that his natal day should be celebrated on June 3. The bill eliminated from the list of public holidays the King's Birthday and provided that in that week the clerks will have the regular half-holiday. The bill also supplies a lack that had hitherto been experienced. While heretofore power was had to prosecute a merchant who did not give the half-holiday, there was no authority to prosecute should he decide to keep open on one of the stipulated public holidays. The bill was given its second reading.

Vancouver's Bill

The Vancouver City charter amendments were further dealt with in the committee stage and the bill reported after an amendment presented by Mr. J. H. Hawthornthwaite, calling for confining the issuance of licenses for near-beer premises to British subjects entitled to be on the Provincial voters' list was defeated. The mover explained that his amendment would eliminate Orientals and aliens.

Mr. M. A. Macdonald, who was piloting the bill through committee, took exception to the amendment, pointing out that many estimable people are living in the Province who are not British subjects, and it takes five years for them, under the Nationalization Act, to secure papers. They would be prevented from entering what was a perfectly legitimate business.

The bill was reported.

A technical amendment to the Religious Institutions Act, introduced by Mr. David Whiteside, called for the appointment of two trustees by such institutions to provide for representing the congregation in the matter of conveyances or other dealings in lands belonging to the body and thereby meeting the requirements of the Land Registry Act.

An amendment to the Trust Companies Act permits the Minister of Finance to transfer to the liquidator in charge of the liquidation of a trust company being wound up the amount of the deposit made by the company with the Government and releasing the Minister from all obligation in respect of such deposit. The bill was given its first reading.

By an amendment to the Administration Act, also introduced by Hon. Mr. Hart, it is provided that unless otherwise ordered by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, where an official administrator is a member of the Civil Service, he shall not receive and commission by way of remuneration for services as administrator, but in each estate administered by him he shall certify an amount equivalent to the commission to which he would otherwise be entitled, and that amount shall be paid from the moneys at the credit of the estate into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The change is made to date back to January 29 last. The bill was given its first reading.

Under an amendment to the Semi-monthly Payment of Wages Act, brought down by Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, it is provided that in the case of mines to which the Coal Mines Regulation Act applies, payment to employees shall be made at least as often as fortnightly and shall be made on a Saturday. The bill received its first reading.

Cemeteries

Mr. J. W. Weart introduced a bill to amend the Cemetery Companies Act to provide that lands acquired by burial companies shall be assessed, and such companies shall deposit with the Minister of Finance a capital sum which, at four per cent, will equal taxes payable in respect of all or any lots or plots that may be sold. This fund to bear interest at four per cent, which interest is to be paid annually to the municipality entitled thereto. The idea was to make the companies pay for the maintenance of the roads, etc., the burden of which at present is on the municipalities. He cited the case of a new cemetery company which has secured lands in Burnaby, lands, exempted from taxation. At the same time the municipality was forced to pay for upkeep of roads, etc., though, he understood, the company expected to make profits as high as 300 per cent. He referred to the excellent location of the cemetery overlooking the Fraser River. The bill would ensure that once the company had sold its property there would be a fund available for perpetual up-keep and maintenance of the cemetery.

Mr. F. J. MacKenzie suggested that the bill was designed to tax the plot into which the last remains of a citizen were to be placed. The bill, to his way of thinking, would certainly round out the Government's policy under which now the Government is taxing every conceivable object. It was in keeping with that policy that the cemetery plots should also be saddled with taxation. It would doubtless prove a source of satisfaction to the deceased that he would have a beautiful location overlooking the Fraser River.

Mr. A. M. Manson thought the proposed policy was a direct change from the long-standing one of exemption to cemeteries from taxation.

Mr. George Bell stated the Municipal Union favored the bill.

Mr. Giolma moved the adjournment of the debate.

Municipal Assessments

Under the bill introduced by Mr. Weart to amend the Local Improvement Act, provision is made for the appointment by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, when it has been shown that inequalities exist as a result of an assessment, of a commission under the Public Inquiries Act to investigate fully all the circumstances surrounding assessments, and to report to the Government the result of its investigation and what remedy, if any, should be given or adjustment made. The Government may, by order-in-council, order the Municipal Council to pass such by-laws readjusting the assessment, etc., as may be deemed necessary. The municipalities will be called upon to pay the necessary traveling and other expenses of the members of the commission.

Mr. M. B. Jackson saw in the bill a principle similar to that in the Victoria City Relief Act and expressed his approval of the measure.

Mr. George Bell pointed to the fact that the bill had not been before the Union of Municipalities, and he suggested it might be laid over for a year. The bill was given its second reading.

When the Motor Vehicles Act was in the committee stage an amendment was made whereby power is given to the chief of police to issue a certificate to anyone over fifteen years, authorizing him or her to drive a motor. The minimum age limit in the bill is seventeen years, but the above amendment will materially ease that regulation, at the same time requiring that anyone younger being allowed to drive must be competent to do so.

The bill was reported complete as amended.

A bill introduced by Hon Dr. MacLean permits an increase in the number of members of the Board of Governors of the Royal Columbian Hospital from twelve to fourteen.

Hon. E. D. Barrow moved the first reading of the bill to amend the Land Settlement and Development Act, explaining it was designed to permit of the reorganization of the Land Settlement Board. It also gives the board authority to operate a store in development areas and divide the profits therefrom among purchasers, and also to make loans, on a progressive method, to those interested in the settlement areas.

By an amendment to the Game Act, the date upon which licenses for fur traders and trappers shall come into effect will be May 1 instead of August 1, as the act first stipulated.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

BEWARE OF TENDER GUMS

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

SERVICE PENSIONS WILL BE INCREASED

Ex-Imperial Officers to Be Affected by Ruling Which Should Be in Operation Almost Immediately

Certain recommendations contained in the second special report of the Select Committee on Officers' Pensions, adopted in the early part of March by the Government, should be in operation by the commencement of the coming quarter. They will have a very important effect on the pensions remitted to ex-Imperial officers here. Should the increased rate in any case be less than the Canadian rate, the Canadian Government, it is announced, will supplement it to bring it up to the Canadian equivalent, an announcement which should be cheering to those who find the disparity in the Imperial pensions a severe drawback. Major MacDonald, of the ex-Imperial Association, Victoria, states that the widow of one Imperial officer here has already had her pension supplemented.

In the report of the committee an elaborate scheme was set out for the rates payable to disabled officers according to rank and percentage of disablement. Increases were proposed, ranging from a £10 increase for a second lieutenant with 100 per cent disablement (£210 to £220) to a £250 increase for a lieutenant-colonel with a similar disability (£350 to £600). The corresponding increases for a 30 per cent disablement were from £95 to £118, and from £290 to £495. In the same way a sub-lieutenant Royal Navy with 100 per cent disablement was increased from £210 to £220, and a commander aged 42 from £430 to £570. The recommendations will be followed with one small technical exception.

Temporary Officers

A man who would have attained to a permanent pension if he had remained in the ranks and had been pensioned as a soldier shall not forfeit that benefit because he took a temporary commission and was disabled as an officer.

It had been decided to empower the Special Grants Committee to grant wife's allowance up to a maximum of £50 a year additional to the retired pay, where need is shown, irrespective of the degree of the disablement of the officer. The limit of children's allowances is raised from £50 to £80.

On the highest pension, a widow's pension, will work out at £140 for a captain or subaltern's widow over 40 with children, and at £120 if under 40 and without children. Allowances for children of a deceased officer (mother still alive) shall be increased from £28 16s to £36, and the educational allowance granted to a widow from £35 to £80. Allowances will be granted to wives of naval warrant officers on the same basis of need as in the case of officers. The widow of a commissioned naval warrant officer over 40 or with children, is to be granted £105, under 40 and without children, £90. The rate for a matron with maximum of disability is fixed at £150, that of a staff nurse or sister at £125, and aid is to be provided where a nurse's relatives were dependent upon her for support.

TOLD OF CATHEDRALS

Rev. C. R. Littler Lectures at Cedar Hill Parish Hall on Interesting Subject

A very interesting lecture on "The Cathedrals of England" was given by the Rev. C. R. Littler in the Parish Hall, Cedar Hill, on Wednesday evening last. Residents of the district were present in large numbers.

In a very concise way Mr. Littler explained the six periods of architecture to be found exemplified in the cathedrals of England, and illustrated his remarks by views thrown on the screen. The history of the cathedrals was told in an entertaining and instructive manner, in all some sixty slides being shown, and Mr. Littler earned the gratitude of all for having provided one of the most interesting evenings ever experienced in the parish hall.

A short musical programme, in which Miss Francis, Mrs. A. H. Parker and Mr. C. R. Clark took part, ended the proceedings, the proceeds from the affair being designed for St. Luke's organ fund.

World's Champions May Swim in V. I. A. A. Gala

SPORTING NEWS

Two Records Broken By Y.M.C.A. Swimmers

NOTED SWIMMERS MAY APPEAR IN VICTORIA

V.I.A.A. Seeking to Arrange Meet in Which World's Record Holders Will Swim Against Coast Stars

There is a strong probability of Miss Etheldra Bleibtrey and Miss Charlotte Boyle, the famous New York swimmers and world's record holders, who are now swimming in connection with the centennial celebration being held in Honolulu at the present time, appearing in a series of matched races with the best talent amongst the lady swimmers of the Pacific Coast, including Miss Ethel Knowles, of the Multnomah Athletic Club, Mrs. Wagstaffe and other Seattle stars, and Miss Audrey Griffin, of the V. I. A. A.

A wire came through yesterday to the effect that these famous swimmers were returning to their home in New York via the Pacific Northwest, and it was reported that they would appear in special meets at Portland, Seattle, and Vancouver, B. C., no mention being made of Victoria. Immediately Supt. W. H. Davies received this news he communicated with members of the swimming committee of the V. I. A. A., and he was instructed to immediately cable to Honolulu and arrange, regardless of expense, the appearance of these world's famous swimmers in this city. Mr. Davies cabled yesterday and prepaid for the reply thereto.

Should this visit materialize, which on the face of the information received looks more than probable, as it is the firm conviction of the local swimming magnates that Victoria is intended in the dispatch instead of Vancouver, a swimming carnival will be arranged under the auspices of the V. I. A. A., which will firmly establish the claim of Victoria to being the live wire outdoor swimming centre of the Pacific Northwest. The fame of Victoria as the home of famous swimming promotions was created at the Kahanamoku gala, which was held under the auspices of the V. I. A. A. in aid of the Red Cross in June, 1918, this event being staged in the evening before an attendance of many thousands of spectators. Since that time two big international championships have been staged by the same club that have greatly added to the fame of this city in the realm of sport. It is expected that this event will be the biggest of its kind ever staged in this city.

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Track Events Will Be Under Regular Standard A. A. U. Conditions for American Aspirants

NEW YORK, April 15.—Events to be contested at all American Olympic tryout meets this Summer will be the regular amateur athletic union standard track and field competitions in place of the Olympic metric events that will prevail at Antwerp. This decision, announced today, is necessary by the fact that the final trial for places on the American team, which will sail for Belgium on July 14, will be held in conjunction with the Amateur Athletic Union championships.

According to present plans the A. A. U. titular games will be staged in the Harvard stadium at Boston on Saturday, July 17, and will be preceded by sectional Olympic tryouts at Philadelphia and Chicago on June 26, and Pasadena July 3. The final trials for places on the steeplechase and decathlon teams will be held here during the week beginning July 11 and will be conducted under Olympic standards and regulations.

KNOX LOOKING OVER WINNIPEG ATHLETES

WINNIPEG, April 15.—Walter R. Knox, coach of the Olympic team, is in Winnipeg looking over the possibilities here for the team. He met a number of athletes and had them go through their paces, and gave many of them friendly tips on how to correct some of their faults. Billy Beggs, the champion jumper of the West, is at present in the hospital recovering from a serious attack of influenza, and it is not thought possible that he will be in condition for athletics this Summer. He probably is the best prospect in Canada.

Reconsideration by France of her decision to withdraw her team from the tournament made re-drawings necessary.

Two New Tank Records Made Last Night in Last Meet of Season

Last night at the weekly Y.M.C.A. club swim, a novel feature was arranged, namely a fight for the hall of fame, in other words the privilege of having one's name put on the tank wall as holder of a record.

At present the following records are held: 40 yards, G. Bidlake, 21.2; 100 yards, G. Bidlake, 65 secs.; 440 yards, J. Marshall, 6.38.3; 40 yards back stroke, J. Barclay, 28 secs.

The one hundred and 440 yards were broken last night and are a fit ending to a consistent season's swimming. Next week the relay team will endeavor to break its already excellent record. The following will be the team: J. Cameron, Angus McKinnon, Al. McKinnon, G. Bidlake, and the record is in great danger, as very few relay teams in British Columbia can show the way to this classy group of swimmers.

During the coming Summer the club expects to have its headquarters at the Y.M.C.A. camp at the Gorge and already a good plan of activities is proposed and will no doubt be carried through.

Special facilities will be given the young swimmers to come along and improve their speed.

BILLY MASCOTT WINS FROM MIKE ERTLE

Portland's Bantam Gets Step Nearer to Titular Honors—Other Results From Squared Circle

SEATTLE, April 15. — Billy Mascott, Portland's entrant in the scuffle for the bantam crown now adorning Pete Herman's brow moved a stride nearer his goal last night when a crushing right hand blow to the chin sent Mike Ertle, nationally known bantamweight, through the ropes and into the laps of the spectators. The punch, delivered in the final minute of the Arena main event, caught the eye of the two judges and won Bobby Evans' boy a decision.

Eddie Jackson made such a roaring finish that the judges gave him a draw against Frank Malone, who proved to be an iron-framed little miller with lots of speed and an inclination to mix.

Val Sontag won his second straight bout when he wore Red Henry out after four interesting rounds and was given the call without any dispute.

One of the night's best bouts was the one in which Danny Edwards, the popular little colored bantam, rallied his forces after two disastrous rounds and won handily. For two frames Harry Mansell, of England, gave the chocolate drop a beating. But along about the third round Charlie Swineheart whispered a few words of encouragement into Danny's ear and Edwards hustled out and won by himself.

Sailor Vincent, one of Uncle Sam's destroyers, beat Mickey Brown in an interesting preliminary.

OAKLAND, April 15.—Bud Ridley, bantamweight, took a decision over "Battling" Vierra in a four-round bout here last night. Lee Anderson, of Sacramento, and Frankie Jones fought a draw.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Preliminary bouts in the Pacific Association Amateur Boxing championship tourney were staged here last nght. The finals are scheduled for tonight.

Summary: 125 pounds — Jean Stalker (Olympic Club) knocked out Albert Mergalia (University of Nevada) in the second round.

135 pounds—Eddie Diggins (O.C.), decision over Leslie Tracy (U.N.), three rounds.

George Locke (O.C.), decision over Ernie Lundgren (O.C.), three rounds.

George Chadwick (U.N.), decision over Walter Dellamore (U.N.), 13 rounds.

108 pounds—Jimmie Dunning (O.C.), won from Albert Sherman (U.N.), in first round. Technical knockout.

158 pounds — George Malone (U.N.), decision over Ted Marlowe (O.C.), three rounds.

LAWN TENNIS

By A Correspondent in The London Times

"Missing from Harrow School—tennis."

So runs an announcement in the Agony Column of The Times, premising the annual campaign for the introduction of lawn tennis into public schools. It is an old controversy now. To put it roughly the reformers have the best of the argument, but public school instinct is against them. They can make out a strong case, and that without insisting on comparisons with other games—especially cricket—as they are apt to do. There is no game demanding activity that can be played to such an advanced age as lawn tennis; Mr. A. W. Gore won the championship—his third—at 41; and a pair of greybeards, wily as serpents, frisky as lambs, and as set as Sarah Battle on the rigor of the game, can be seen on Saturday afternoons at any lawn tennis club. Of these games, lawn tennis once acquired comes nearest to "the possession for ever" which headmasters like to talk about, and its advocates might suggest its compatibility with a classical education by telling them so in the original Greek.

Lawn Tennis makes such small demands on time and space that a boy who leaves school for an office in town may get from it all the exercise he needs. It should not be necessary today to insist that it is a strenuous game; for London has trooped to see Mr. McLoughlin serve, Mr. Brookes volley, and Mr. Parke run; a man had best live temperately if he would win a five-set single at Wimbledon. The doubles game does call for that subordination of self to the side on which schoolmasters lay stress. Had Mr. Hackett played to the gallery, the Davis Cup would not have left England in 1913; he was content to put the ball where it left America a little the better off, and where the easier stroke would return it to his redoubtable partner—and the Cup went. Is there any game where the moral strain is greater than in a close fought single? "The little more and how much it is!"—15 to the other man to be exact; the little less, and the drop shot hits the net cord, balances itself for an eternity and falls back; the net-cord stroke to your opponent when you were at last within a point of four-all; and the umpire . . . . Physically done, the football player can leave it to the other fellows to do a bit; the bowler will be taken off; but the lawn tennis player must run on and on with his heart thumping; he has no one but himself to rely on; a knockout blow won't help him; it is useless to go berserk, he must keep his touch and his temper. It is not enough to die well, he must live well. It takes a fine sort of courage to make a lawn tennis player. The game, in fact, may be put before the schoolmasters on its merits.

Cruel and Capricious

Then, again, there are the comparisons instituted between lawn tennis and cricket, the game in possession. School games are for exercise and recreation; why then should some boys be compelled to play a game which affords them neither exercise—because they play it so badly—nor recreation—because they dislike it? Cricket and football provide an unlimited and innocuous subject of conversation in hours of leisure? So does lawn tennis—though the first adjective may be more applicable than the second to the part about that false bound. Go to Queen's Club and be convinced. Lawn tennis will injure cricket? It will not. It will improve cricket by drawing off from junior games the conscripts whose indifference spoils them. It will not affect senior games at all. Boys are too ineradicably combative to hit a soft ball when they can hit a hard one. None of the impressive arguments based on the above will influence cricketers; tell them that nine-elevenths of a batting side pass their time in enforced idleness, and unlike other enthusiasts they do not reply with counter statistics. A cricketer does not argue about the merits of cricket, he just plays it whenever he can. As soon would a lover submit an estimate of the charms of his mistress as a cricketer those of cricket; cruel and capricious she may be beyond all the sportive sisterhood, but that is all forgoten when she is kind; the half volley jumping from the thick of the bat; the deepfield catch—with the long vigil—the sudden gasp—the trance—the step back to let the ball fall clear of the eyes—the feel of the dear thing in the hands—he might tell you about all these but he does not; he thinks you are a dull dog not to know. Cricket can take care of itself.

Not all the arguments used in support of lawn tennis are cogent. It is no part of a schoolmaster's business to train a corps of janissaries to fight for the Davis Cup. This may be set against the contention of the headmaster of a school famous for its rackets—that "lawn tennis causes lop-sided growth." Probably it does. Tailors say we are all lop-sided; they may say so to account for lop-sided coats, but what boy but would have preferred that headmaster not to employ his throwing arm for punitive ends? Be that as it may, the "lop-sided" argument made the best propaganda the lawn tennis party ever had.

The case for lawn tennis is a strong one, and it appears stronger than it is because the schools hesitate to state theirs. To do so would be to provoke an outcry about snobbery and conservatism, and repression of the individual; moreover, much of it rests on imponderabilia that cannot be cast into the scales. The public schools set themselves to train boys in a certain way; we are told today that it is a bad way; it may be; but the public schools do not think so, and at any rate they cannot be expected to change their principles for the sake of a game. The typical public school boy develops a kind of regimental feeling, and he "dresses with" the rest. He gets into the way of sacrificing his private preferences to play in team matches for his house or club, and he becomes none the worse a man for that. Moreover, it is not only the boys who are brilliant at team games that enjoy them. Many a clumsy fellow cherishes the memory of ten needed runs in a house match.

Lawn tenis must be played hard to be a school game—or, indeed, a game at all. There would not be many boys left over when team games were had, and they would not be the best athletes who would be playing cricket. The question of skill is important, for if the standard is low the game would fall into disrepute.

There is another point; you can do very well out of being conventional when you turn artist; but you don't do very well out of it at school. The boys in whose interest lawn tennis is often advocated are those who will not conform to common practices; rightly or wrongly, boys dislike them as a class—and not infrequently they could give good reasons for their antipathy. If this is so, "lawn tennis player" would become a term of abuse, and the secondary character of the game and the unpopularity of the players would react upon one another to make the lawn tennis courts an Alsatia. Some such reasoning as this may be at the back of the disinclination of the school authorities to set aside ground for lawn tennis. It is not lawn tennis they dislike but its very poor relation—pat-ball.

NOT THE ENGLAND OF WHICH POETS RAVE

"An English journalist who had made his reputation in pre-war days has lately contributed to a contemporary a sketch bearing the title 'On Seeing England.' He wrote of his return to the land of his birth after a lengthy absence abroad—to the England of clean pastures and rustic woods, of pretty gardens and beautiful villas, of loamy uplands and emerald dales. And he found his England a land to be prdud of, a happy hunting-ground for the Nature-lover.

"In a little way I have lately been 'seeing England,' with the eye of an outsider, but it was not the England of which the poets rave . . ." writes Thomas Kelly in The Irish Statesman.

"At four-thirty on a February morning I stood on the platform of a Manchester railway station, watching the streams of mill-hands and factory-workers flow into and out of the train. They moved—men and women—as might the machines they tended, mechanically obeying the printed notices ('Have your tickets and contracts ready'), scarce seeing the ticket-checkers as they produced their slips of pasteboard. The 'thrump thrump' of clogs echoed all over the building, but never a word was spoken by a member of that human stream.

"Bespectacled and ancient porters came and went with their notebooks; the women carriage-cleaners in their blue trousers moved vacantly from place to place. Scores of trucks brought hundreds of bundles labelled Manchester Guardian; the old-young men who handled them toiled with the regularity of clockwork. Everyone about had the same listless gaze into nothingness, the same anaemic pallor of face, the same dull gloom in their general mien. Not a soft line about these features, not a hint that their owners knew aught of smiling, not a glimmer of thought behind those masks of blahkness—and yet we know these people do think. . . .

"I found myself in a train going eastwards from Cottonopolis. The carriage was packed. The men kept their faces almost glued to their newspapers; the two girls in the compartment talked all the while. Or, rather, they jabbered, for I could not make out a solitary word they uttered—and they kept going without a stop for more than ten minutes. Passengers jerked out of the carriage, and others came in; many of them giving one the impression that they were but walking in their sleep. . . .

"Daylight came to show us a region of foundry and factory, a land of gaunt buildings and smoking chimney-stacks, a world of hurrying clogs and ear-piercing sirens. We slipped past cotton-mills and steel-works, by dirty canals and stagnant dams, by monotonous rows of grimy dwellings with now and then an occasional parody on a garden, by lurid boardings and blank-looking walls, by an orgy of railway lines which seemed to spread over the land like steel snakes, by kilns and stacks and all the soot-wreathed landmarks of latterday Lancashire.

"I forget how many hundreds of belching chimneys I counted during an hour's journey, but I vividly remember that I could discover only one church spire, and that one looked strangely uncomfortable. Money is the only god that commands attention in this land of the cotton boom.

"There is no fine dividing line between working and residential quarters here. Professional men live next door to factory toilers. It is a land where money is made and guarded, where money is the constant topic of conversation, but where it is not possible to tell from a man's dress the amount of his income. The hard-headed people who rush to their work, who jump into starting trains, who are not afraid of labor, who take their pleasures seriously if not madly, have all the same Lancashire spirit—the spirit that thinks in shares and dreams of dividends."

The roads are good; a run over the famous Malahat and lunch at Strathcona Lodge, Shawnigan Lake.

YANKEES MAKE PLANS FOR TENNIS INVASION

Will Enter for English Championships at Wimbledon Before Playing in Davis Cup Heats

NEW YORK, April 15.—While the United States Lawn Tennis Association has not yet given official recognition to the re-draft in the Davis Cup matches, which took place today in Sydney, it is expected that the American team will play its preliminary rounds abroad.

The Association plans to enter a team in the English championships at Wimbledon, next June, and it is probable that, following these matches, the American racquet wielders will invade France for the first round with the French players. If successful, the British Isles team, which drew a bye, will be met in the second round, where a second victory would place the United States team in the position of virtual challengers for the trophy held by Australia. The American team which will go abroad will undoubtedly be composed of the leading players of the nation. Although the personnel has not been announced, it is considered certain that William Johnston, R. Norris Williams, William Tilden and other members of the ranking ten will form the team, providing personal or business reasons do not interfere with the trip, which will take fully six weeks.

WORLD'S CROPS

The bulletin of the International Institute at Rome, published recently, states that the aggregate yield of wheat in Argentina, the Union of South Africa, and Australia for this year is estimated at 74,490,524 quintals, against 93,301,579 last year and 70,315,504 the average for the previous five years, or 79.8 per cent and 105.9 per cent of the two last mentioned yields respectively. The bulletin further supplies some statistics as to the area sown with Winter wheat in Denmark, England and Wales, Norway, Canada, the United States, and British India. As regards the two last-mentioned countries, by far the most important in the list, it may be observed that the area sown with Winter wheat in the United States was 19,840,737 hectares, indicating an increase of 15.9 per cent on the area of the previous year, while, according to the data of the first report on the area under wheat in British India, this area is 9,498,649 hectares, showing a decrease of 30.8 per cent on that reported last year at the same period. In fact, the weather in India has not been favorable for agricultural work, or for sowing; it should, however, be mentioned that the above data are incomplete, as sowings were still in progress at the period when the returns were made up. As to the condition of winter cereals the reports are generally satisfactory in Denmark, England and Wales, Scotland, Ireland; while the young plant is in average condition in Italy, Norway and Egypt. The bulletin also includes data as to the most recent census of livestock in Denmark and in the United States. We observe from the reports on this subject that, according to the statistics of January, 1919, the number of cattle on agricultural and breeding farms in the United States was 67,866,000, showing an increase of 444,000 head as compared with January 1, 1918. A still more important increase is noticeable in the number of sheep (49,863,000, or 3.6 per cent more than last year's figures), and especially in that of pigs (75,587,000, an increase of 6.5 per cent). By way of supplement the bulletin includes an examination of the yield, trade, and prices of milk, butter and cheese, showing the degree of importance attained by these products, from an international aspect. The progress of technical science and the increasing food requirements brought about in many countries by the war, will unquestionably have a considerable influence on the yield and trade for these important products.

COLORS OF THE SEA

The water of the Atlantic Ocean is green in shallow places, indigo in deep ones, and black in very deep ones; that of the Mediterranean is blue. The color of the water, however, depends upon the minute solid substances that are in suspension in it, and the purer the water the less color it has. If water contained no suspended matter, and it was deep enough, it would be black as ink, and although we might get a glint of white light reflected directly from its surface, we should get no light, hence no color, from its depths. This is often the case in mid-ocean, where it is very deep and the water is very pure. We never see it as black as ink, for even the purest water contains a certain amount of suspended matter, but we do see it as a deep indigo. A white plate weighted with lead was sent overboard at the end of fifty or sixty yards of line, and its color watched as it sank. A similar test was made in the water of the Mediterranean and it was found that it was brilliantly blue in almost all places. The blue or green hue is not caused by the reflection of light from suspended particles, however, but by absorption of the rays of light, beginning at the red end of the spectrum. This is proved by sinking various colored objects and watching their change of color. A lemon becomes green, for instance, and every color behaves as if seen through a blue glass. The green color of the Atlantic and the blue of the Mediterranean are due to the different character of the minute particles held in suspension. And the color is always brighter near shore or over shoals because in such places it carries more particles than where it is very deep.

Reflecting Power of Clouds

Some interesting observations on this subject have recently been reported by Mr. L. H. Aldrich, of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory. Mr. Aldrich arranged with the aviation service at Arcadia, Cal., to install a pyranometer on a military balloon, which was sent up through a layer of fog or low cloud covering the San Gabriel Valley. This instrument measures the heating effect of radiation received from the whole sky, or from the sun or the sky separately, as desired. An army officer who went up in the balloon exposed the pyranometer repeatedly from seven to eleven in the morning, upright to the sun and sky, combined and inverted to the radiation coming up from the layer of cloud. The instrument was connected electrically with the ground, whence the readings were recorded by Mr. Aldrich. The measurements showed, with substantial uniformity, that 78 per cent of the radiation falling on the upper surface of the cloud or fog was reflected. From this it is inferred that a planet completely enveloped in smooth clouds would be shielded, by reflection, from about 78 per cent of the solar rays. As the mean cloudiness of the earth is about 50 per cent, about 39 per cent of the solar rays would thus appear to be turned back into space and be ineffective to warm the terrestial surface.

Electrically-Heated Boilers

A somewhat unusual problem is discussed in a German technical journal, namely, the use of electric heating for steam-raising boilers. The method would probably apply in exceptional circumstances—for example, in cases where coal is scarce, but water-power is cheap. It appears that such conditions prevail in some wood pulp and paper factories of the far north. Narrow tubes of insulating material containing water are vertically arranged so as to communicate with the interior of the boiler at the upper and lower end of the tubes. Current is passed through the water columns enclosed in the tubes. The resistance is relatively high, and, accordingly, high voltage alternating current is desirable, three phases being used. The current is regulated by moving the electrodes in the tubes. The efficiency of the boilers is said to exceed 95 per cent.

UNUSUAL INTEREST ATTACHES TO THE VARIETY'S LATEST

Maurice Tourneur's new Paramount-Artcraft special picture, "The White Heather" will have its premiere at the Variety Theatre next week. Unusual interest is attached to the production for a number of reasons First; because it is the first production coming from Mr. Tourneur in months; second, it is the first picture made by the director in California; third, it is described as the best of the melodramas made by the producer of "The Whip," "Sporting Life," "Alias Jimmy Valentine" and other screen thrillers.

"The White Heather" is based on Cecil Raleigh and Henry Hamilton's famous Drury Lane melodrama, which met with enormous success in London and later in New York. It had a Broadway run with Amelia Bingham as the heroine. Richard Bennett also appeared in the company.

When Mr. Tourneur took his entire studio staff to California he selected "The White Heather" as his first production. The background of the melodrama is divided between the Scotch Highlands, the London financial district, the slums and the ocean. The story revolves around the efforts of an unscrupulous nobleman to repudiate his marriage to a pretty commoner, the only record of the ceremony being in the wreck of a yacht at the bottom of the sea.

"The White Heather" culminates in a death struggle between the hero and the villain at the bottom of the sea, both trying to get possession of the fateful paper locked within a water-tight chest. These scenes were actually taken on the ocean floor off San Pedro Harbor, Mr. Tourneur utilizing the newest subsea photographic inventions of the Williamson Brothers.

PROTEAN FUN, FANCIES AND FADS FEATURED

Orpheum This Week Will Offer Inevitable Bevy of Beauty and Whirlwind of Novel and Catchy Items

"Doc" Baker, the noted protean artist in "Flashes," described as a lightning revue of fun, fancies and fads, with Polly Walker and Bud and Jack Pearson, with lightning wardrobe changes and a big bevy of beautiful girls, is the headline act in the Orpheum bill at the Royal tonight, Saturday matinee and night. It is an entirely new and original offering and comes to the Orpheum this week as a headline attraction. "Flashes" has a thread of a story. It is a revue colorful and beautiful to the eye. Scenically the producers have spared nothing, and the costuming is unusually elaborate.

Irving Newhoff and Dode Phelps have decked themselves out with songs by William Friedlander. They have demonstrated their ability and a song in their keeping is a treasure, and so a song by Friedlander may really be expected to be, as their billing indicates, "Fragrant Tunes From the Garden of Melody."

William Cutty in a "Little Bit of Irish" will be on this bill. Traditionally, the arts and sciences are handed down from generation to generation and the Cutty family is a fine example of this tradition. William Cutty is now doing a single after many years with the famous Six Cuttys, which is now no more. Cutty is a genuine artist.

In a clever presentation of dance ideas Hart and Dymond, champion long distance dancers of the world, as vaudeville dancers have perfected a programme that contains many new ideas in dancing and is executed with skill and grace. They artistically combine specialty and ballroom dancing in their programme.

The sketch of the week that promises much from an entertainment viewpoint is that of "What We Want Most," as presented by Wallis Clark and company. The playlet treats with selfishness and the thirst for power, the husband for business power and the wife for social power. It is a cleverly constructed sketch and one that will make an instant appeal.

Rinaldo Brothers in Roman art have selected sculpture as a particularly artistic endeavor. The Rinaldo brothers give a series of poses depicting various well-known statues. They engage also in hand to hand balancing and difficult gymnastics in rounding out their offering.

Another standard vaudeville act will be that presented by Anthony and Rogers. Their offering is one that will make an appeal to all lovers of good vaudeville and promises to be one of the outstanding features of the bill.

The programme will be concluded with the usual motion picture films of educational and entertaining value and the Orpheum orchestra will offer one of its best programmes of the season.

PRINCESS THEATRE A special measure of praise must be allotted to Mr. Herbert Kent, who is wielding the conductor's baton at the production of the "Pirates of Penzance" at the Princess Theatre. One might comb the length and breadth of Canada without finding another so musically competent and so experienced in Gilbert and Sullivan Opera. The finished work of the chorus, than which no better has ever been heard in Victoria, is as much due to Mr. Kent's able conducting as to their own uncommon vocal powers. Whilst the whole range of Gilbert and Sullivan operas comes particularly within his experience, he has, as it were, specialised in "The Pirates." As a matter of local theatrical history, the public may be interested in learning that in October of 1885 this particular comic opera was produced at the opening of the old Victoria Theatre, and many well-known Victorians, many of whom are still resident in Victoria, took part. Our present Lieutenant-Governor interpreted the part of the pirate king with great distinction and his presence amongst the audience at the Princess at a recent performance must have recalled many happy memories. The part of Ruth was taken by Mrs. George Jay, the wife of the police magistrate, whilst Mr. C. A. Lombard was the major-general, and Edward White was Frederic. In this production Mr. Kent himself played as the sergeant of police and in 1893, when the "Pirates" was again staged, he once more took the same part. His knowledge of the comic opera has therefore been gained not only in front of but behind the footlights as well, and the result is obvious to all who have heard the singing of the chorus at the Princess this week.

COLUMBIA THEATRE "Lasca," a screen production, based on the famous poem by Frank Despres, will be shown for the first time here at the Columbia Theatre today. It is said that when Universal announced that it had filmed "Lasca" every motion picture producer in America wondered why he had not thought of screening this poem—one of the most popular and dramatic compositions ever penned. And every report gives assurance that none of its possibilities have been overlooked. Percy Heath, head of Universal's editorial department, prepared the scenario, using the poem for a basis. The story opens in a Mexican village—the home of Lasca. Just across the Rio Grande lie the vast acres of Anthony Mordland. A strange friendship begins between the wild creature of the range and the young ranchman. Moreland looks upon the girl as would a big brother, while Lasca grows to love the man who has treated her as an equal.

DOMINION THEATRE What is "the thirteenth commandment?" The motion picture by that name, starring Ethel Clayton, which is being shown at the Dominion Theatre this week, answers the question thus: "Thou shalt not spend more than thou earnest." It advances a rather stern theory of living, which is especially applicable to idle and extravagant wives whose husbands are continually making sacrifices in order to satisfy their every whim. In a strikingly dramatic manner "The Thirteenth Commandment" shows what is liable to happen when a wife thinks it is her sole duty to look pretty, dress lavishly and spend her husband's money. The heroine, played by Miss Clayton, sees the light just in time and after a brave struggle against want and temptation is able to go to the man she loves with a clean slate. The picture was adapted from Rupert Hughes' novel and is interpreted by a good cast, which, besides Miss Clayton, includes Monte Blue, Charles Meredith, Anna Q. Nilsson and Irving Cummings.

ROMANO THEATRE From a gentleman of wealth and social standing to a longshoreman is something of a slide down the scale of life. William Farnum not only takes the slide, but he fights his way back, in the William Fox photoplay, "The Man Hunter," which will be shown at the Romano Theatre today. It is a play that gives the star a fine opportunity to display his rare ability. His makeup of the various characters he portrays in this picture reflects admirably his long experience on the stage and screen. In a way it seems a pity to lose that fine Farnum voice, yet the screen has needed not only his splendid acting, but also the wonderfully strong and wholesome pictures he selects for the public view.

PANTAGES THEATRE Hope Vernon is one of the variety attractions on this week's bill of Pantages vaudeville. She is a very pretty young woman who wears stunning gowns, sings pleasingly in a number of ballads and popular airs, and then gives an imitation of a violin that puts her right up in the hit column. The feature of the current bill is the appearance in this city of Jimmie Casson and Hazel Kirke in what is termed "musical comedy vaudevillised." Snap and sparkle mark this feature offering of delightful songs and graceful dancing. Fred Klein introduces a bit of piano melody into the number. The special added attraction of the programme is the return engagement of Joe Jenny and his famous Empire Trio. They mingle comedy with harmony singing in a way that never fails to appeal. Valand Gamble astonishes the audiences with his rapid calculations, the Four Bonisettis close the show with a splendid exposition of aerial gymnastics and it is opened by Harvard, Holt and Kendrick with a novelty stunt on wheels.

BAD COLDS

BRONCHITIS

However slight a cold you have you should never neglect it; if you do it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Bronchitis is one of the most common affections of a neglected cold, and neglected bronchitis the most general cause of consumption.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is just the remedy you require to cure the bronchitis. It does this by loosening the phlegm and mucus, and stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts and thus prevents it becoming chronic.

Mr. R. P. Goodkind, Francis, Sask., writes: "I had a very bad cold which left me with bronchitis. I tried several cough remedies and also oil of some kind, but they all failed. At last I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and after using only one bottle I have never had a case of bronchitis since. I therefore can honestly recommend it for coughs and colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"MALE AND FEMALE" HAS EXCELLENT PHOTOGRAPHY

The actual sinking of a ship is one of the many unusual scenic artifices which are aided and abetted by splendid photography. The vicissitudes of the story offers many humorous and romantic opportunities to a notable cast of actors. De-Mille's instinctive power in sustaining interest never flags in "Male and Female." There are moments when it asserts itself in a spirit of comedy that does honor to the source of the story, and again it is heightened in scenes of dramatic intensity. His sympathy and skill in the handling of the story is absorbed by the cast and revealed with remarkable effect in particular instances by Thomas Meighan as Crichton, Gloria Swanson as Lady Mary, Lila Lee as Tweeny and Theodore Roberts as Lord Loam. "Male and Female" is a super-motion picture of the first order as follows:

The story has been amplified in other directions until it is as big as a Griffith production. The scenes are unusually beautiful and the play is a motion picture spectacle of the first order. The cast is excellent.

"Male and Female" will be presented at the Dominion all next week.

HOLDING "AT HOME" TUESDAY EVENING

Royal Astronomical Society Will Hold Social—Photos Through Great Telescope Will Be Shown

The Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, Victoria branch, intends holding an "At Home" on Tuesday evening next at the rooms of the Comrades of the Great War, 913 Douglas Street. The proceedings are to commence at 8:30 o'clock, and while it is naturally expected that the nature of the gathering will be social, there is, it is announced, to be a programme. This will include the exhibition of photographs of celestrial objects taken with the 73-inch telescope at Observatory Mountain; also star charts, maps and spectra. Experiments are to be demonstrated, and will show the spectroscope in operation, measuring machines, meteorological instruments, earthquake records, magnetograms, etc.

As Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the Astro-Physical Observatory, is honorary president of the society, and Dr. R. K. Young, also of the Observatory staff, is president, matters relevant to their work should be set before the members in an expert and interesting way. Mr. Napier Denison, who is in charge of the Meteorological station at Gonzales Heights, is on the executive of the society, and matters falling within his special field of work should also be of very great interest. Other officers of the society are as follows:

Vice-president, Mr. J. E. Umbach; secretary, Mr. K. M. Chadwick; treasurer, Mr. J. P. Hibben; executive, Mr. A. W. McCurdy, Mr. W. S. Drewry, Mrs. H. H. Christopher, Dr. Etta Denovan, Mr. W. E. Harper, Mr. F. C. Green, Mr. G. G. Aitken and Mr. G. S. McTavish.

PUBLIC INVITED TO "MOUNT JOY" GARDENS

There are few people in Victoria who do not love flowers. A drive through the residential part of the city gives ample proof of this. The smallest cottages have their little plots, blooming, when the time comes, with something that the season calls for. But rarely does one have an opportunity to see so much floral beauty in such a lovely setting as at "Mount Joy," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pemberton, Foul Bay, which is being thrown open to the public this afternoon for the benefit of the Emergency Fund of the Women's Canadian Club —a fund, by the way, which is devoted to helping the families of soldiers and through which the ladies' organization has done much good since the war began.

"Mount Joy" gardens wear their gayest Spring attire at the present moment. Daffodils and variegated primulas, hyacinths and mombrishia and tulips, flaunt their gold and purple and red in the glades beneath the trees or border the rock-pond and the winding paths. It is all very much worth seeing, and as the feast of flowers is to be followed by afternoon tea (indoors) visitors any time between three and six o'clock are assured of a very delightful time.

CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH

By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.

TURKISH WOMEN ARE BECOMING FRIVOLOUS

Sultan Has Promulgated Decree Aimed to Promote Marriage and Arrest Modern Social Tendencies

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 15.—The Sultan, Mohammad VI., has issued an imperial decree proclaiming May 1 as "marriage day" throughout Turkey in an effort to promote the weddings and to arrest the decline in the birth rate. This action was taken on the request of Hasim Bey, Minister of Interior, who ascribes the decreased number of births in Turkey to the frivolity of young women.

In the Sultan's decree all engaged persons who have been unable to marry earlier are urged to do so on May 1. As an inducement, no charges are to be made for marriages performed on that day, guests at weddings are to make no gifts, the first children of those who wed on May 1 are to receive the names of the children of the Sultan and to receive the gift of a bracelet from the governor of the province in which the child is born. The Sultan's son is named d'Ertoghroul and his daughters are Roukie and d'Ulvie.

The edict is especially directed to the province of Broussa, in Anatolia, which attracted much unfavorable comment in the Mohammedan press because of its greatly reduced birth rate and the tendency of its population to violate the Moslem prohibition of the use of intoxicating beverages. Government officials allege that people of Anatolian villages, men and women alike, indulge what they call "burning nights" of music and feasting.

Indulgence in modern dancing has aroused the protest of a member of the Chamber of Deputies from Anatolia, who has introduced a bill authorizing officials to prevent women from "participating in the antics and capers of the ballroom."

SOCIAL LEGISLATION IN SOVIET RUSSIA

Wife Must Support Husband When He Is Unable to Work, and Obligation on Husband Is Reciprocal

LONDON, April 15.—A Russian wife is required to support her husband if she be able to do so and he is unable to work and in need of her support under the marriage laws of Soviet Russia. A copy of this code, translated into English, has just reached London from the Russian People's Commissariat of Justice.

It provides that married persons shall be expected to support each other. Should one refuse and the other be what is classed as a "needful," unfit to work, the latter has the right to apply to the Department of Social Security to compel the husband or wife, as the case may be, to pay support.

Mutual consent of husband and wife, or merely the desire of one of them to be freed from the other may be considered as grounds for divorce. Local judges are authorized to hear divorce cases, but their decisions are subject to appeal.

The matrimonial age is fixed at 18 for men and 16, for girls. Both must be of sound mind and mutually desirous of marriage. Differences of religion or vows of celibacy are no impediment. Married persons may choose to bear the surname of the bride or of the bridegroom or their joint name. Marriages contracted in accordance with religious forms are not binding unless the union is registered under the prescribed form of civil or Sovietist marriages. Old forms of marriage law or, as it is termed, "the legalized forging together of men and women," are abolished.

Under the laws of succession in the Soviet code, none but the "needful" and the state may inherit property. The estates of emigrants and of rebels are subject to confiscation by the state.

NEW YORK SERVANTS ROB WINE CELLARS

Employers Dare Not Prosecute Owing to Dearth of Labor and Insurance Rates Are Increased

NEW YORK, April 15.—An increase of 25 per cent in burglary insurance rates, which has just been put into effect has brought to light the fact that employers, made timid by the shortage of domestic workers, are tolerating thefts from their wardrobes and wine cellars in order to retain the few servants they have "in captivity." Officials of indemnity companies who give this explanation declare that in many cases employers have refused to allow the servants in their households to be questioned about thefts, through fear that they will quit if annoyed. Emboldened by this situation, dishonest servants are reported to be helping themselves to their employers' effects, such as wine, clothing and jewelry.

"Servants are privileged characters in the homes of the wealthy throughout New York," said the head of one surety company. "In many cases holders of burglary insurance policies have cancelled their claims against the company rather than prosecute a guilty servant, knowing that this would mean the loss of his or her services."

One New York lawyer recently refused to allow his servants to be questioned regarding a $1,000 theft, saying: "Don't go near the house. If the maids suspect you, they will leave."

One investigator reported a case in which a young servant had, in two weeks, disposed of eight cases of champagne and eight cases of whisky by holding wine parties in the kitchen for her friends and entertaining them with choice liquors from her employer's private stock. Although the owner knew he could not replace the missing beverages, he refused to prosecute.

Farmers Will Go Ahead.

CALGARY, April 15.—"We are not the slightest bit alarmed about it, our political activities will go on with undiminished vigor," was the remark of H. Higginbotham, general secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta, when seen Thursday morning upon his return to the city in connection with the contentious clause 10 of the new franchise bill which was passed by the Federal House.

WORKSHOPS IN RUSSIA UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Government Threatens Measure That Will End Crime of Holiday-Making When the People Lack Food

LONDON, April 14.—The Russian Soviet Government has threatened to put the workshops of the northern railways under martial law to put an end to what it calls the "crime" of the workers in wasting time in holiday-making, according to a wireless message from Moscow. The Government asserts that 1,000 working days were thus lost in one month and that "the railway men are arranging to have two days of idleness each week at a time when millions of people are hungering and when it is impossible to transport bread owing to lack of railway engines." It notifies the idlers that they will either have to make up for the time "of which the republic has been robbed" or receive full penalty under martial law.

The message issued by the Government is headed "Shame, comrades," and declares that Russia cannot await salvation from foreigners, but must fight for her own internal blockade in order to "end the ruinous condition of things, conquer hunger and save the Soviet Republic."

Silver a Mining By-Product

Silver is probably one of the strangest metals won from the earth. The time was, notably during the early days of the State of Colorado, when ores were mined for their silver. But when silver was deposed from its high position of ranking with gold as a currency standard, the aspect was completely changed. Other metals commanded attention, and in many instances it was found more profitable to ignore the silver in the ore as the primary product and only to recover it when exigencies compelled or it was found profitable so to do. In these circumstances silver became a by-product, and as such for the most part it is regarded to this day. That is the normal state of affairs. But with silver commanding twice its normal value the outlook is very different. The world demands silver, and silver it must have. Accordingly, many mines which were abandoned because it did not pay to work the silver, and which did not possess other metals in sufficiently attractive proportions to warrant exploitation, have been reopened. The silver, and silver alone, is now recovered, and will be continued until the metal sinks once more to an unremunerative level.

Picture House Tricks

All kinds of instruments are used behind the stage in theatres and picture houses to produce imitations of noises, such as the clattering of horses' hoofs, the entrance of a train into a station, and so on; and quite elaborate machines have been thought out to produce these noises. Flight has made it necessary to invent still another one, and a new instrument has been produced to make a noise like an aeroplane. Two large discs are fitted together with partitions like a water-wheel, and holes about four inches apart are arranged round the circumference. While one man turns the "wheel" quickly round, another man pours a jet of compressed air against the holes, and the noise is exactly like that of the motor of an aeroplane in flight.

NATIONALIZATION NO REMEDY, SAYS ASQUITH

Famous Mediator in British Labor Disputes Defines the Causes and Prescribes Remedies for Unrest

London, England—Lord Askwith recently addressed the members of the United Club at the premises of the Constitutional Club when a dinner was given in his honor. His subject was "Industrial Unrest," and Lord Askwith said that this was a subject that obsessed most people at the present moment and from which many people expected great difficulties in the future. The present unrest, he said, started as far back as 1908, when big strikes broke out. In 1910 and 1911 more strikes occurred, and in fact there was an economic revolution and the flames spread like wildfire. The strikes were settled by degrees, but they showed that the leaders of the men had got out of touch with the rank and file and the hearts of their men.

In the Autumn of 1914, continued Lord Askwith, there were serious movements on the part of labor for the betterment of conditions, but the war came and put a different complexion on things. Labor had an ideal, and he stated emphatically that nothing could have beaten the way in which labor put its squabbles below ground and decided to go into the war and win it.

Government Waste

One of the causes of the industrial unrest after the war was government waste and extravagance. The people saw that the government were not curtailing expenditure, so they said: "Why should we curtail expenditure? If the cost of living goes up we shall ask for more wages." The workers have been told there was to be a new world. They asked for it at once. They were tired of the war and a natural reaction set in. The labor schemes of 1914 were revived.

The country, continued Lord Askwith, was rapidly falling into camps. On the one side they had capital and the employers, and on the other they had labor and their leaders behind them. Between them they had what was commonly called class hatred. The feeling of class hatred was not improved by anything that was being said at the present time.

Against Bureaucracy

With regard to the nationalization of mines, Lord Askwith said he was against any industry in Great Britain being run by bureaucrats in Whitehall. The other day he asked Mr. Smillie what nationalization was. Mr. Smillie replied that the fundamental of nationalization must be accepted before he could give details. The whole of the question of nationalization largely depended upon management. They could not get on without the three—capital, management and labor.

He did not believe that nine-tenths of the trades unionists of the country cared about nationalization at all, or understood what it meant. Government control of trams and trains was all very well, but he did not believe in the coal industry, upon which every other industry depended, being experimented upon. The people were disgusted with government control of munitions during the war, and did not like government interference in industry.

Lord Askwith deprecated the attacks upon the Labor Party as not being fit to govern. They only drove more people into labor, he declared, by attacking them as Bolsheviki. He appealed to employers to take a more active interest in their workpeople, to treat them as human beings, to make their lives more pleasant outside, and to see that they were comfortably housed. In fact, he added, the lack of housing was one of the most wicked causes of the unrest.

ENGLISH ESTATES FORCED ON MARKET

Members of Nobility Compelled to Sell Properties Owing to High Rates of Taxation

LONDON, April 15.—England's war taxes continue to force many of her nobility to sell parts of their great estates. One of the greatest of these which recently passed under the auctioneer's hammer is that of the Duke of Rutland, which is known as Belvoir. The Duke owns about 59,000 acres, of which he is selling about 13,000 acres located in the best part of the Lincolnshire hunting district. He explained at a public meeting that the sale was made necessary by the increasing burden of taxation resulting from the war.

Goadby Hall, one of the Duke's properties of 230 acres, was sold privately in advance of the public sale and 100 tenants have bought from the Duke the farms he had rented to them.

Earl Manver's estate, known as "Holme Pierrepont," at Radcliffe-on-Trent, has been sold at auction for £42,655. It covers 220 acres.

It is reported that part of the estate of the Earl of Londesborough, comprising Ranciffe Woods and Racecourse, has been bought by a Scarborough financier.

Napoleon's Necklace.

The $200,000 diamond necklace presented by Napoleon to the Empress Marie Louise, forming part of the crown jewels of Austria, is now the object of judicial investigation in Paris. In 1913 the court of Austria was desirous of helping the royalist party in Portugal and being short of funds decided to sell certain crown jewels, among which was the famous necklace. A special envoy was sent to France and the jewels were entrusted to the lady for her to arrange a sale. No receipts were given or asked for. The war began while this sale was not yet complete and now the lady is bringing an action against the diamond merchant, and the latter in his counter-claim asks for £1,000 commission.

BERLIN, April 10.—The German government hopes to raise 1,000,000,000 marks by unusual levy on telephone subscribers. It is announced that they will be assessed a special one-time tax of 1,000 marks, which will bear interest and be returned when the subscription is cancelled. Charges for the use of telephones will be more than doubled and postage rates increased 100 per cent in April. Telegraph rates will be heavily advanced.

SAYS K. OF C. WORK HERE WILL NOT DIE

Great War Veterans Will Carry on Activities on Similar Principle, Mr. J. D. O'Connell Tells Rotarians

How the Knights of Columbus, at their "hut" in the Ritz Hotel, have helped to place the Victoria returned soldier on his feet, was told to Rotarians yesterday by Mr. J. D. O'Connell, state deputy and immediate past president of the Rotary Club. Mr. O'Connell addressed a club luncheon in the dining-room of the Ritz Hotel, which has now been placed in the hands of the Great War Veterans Association.

After reciting the achievements of the K. of C. organization here and elsewhere for the benefit of the returned men, Mr. O'Connell declared: "We are closing down now because we have come to the end of our funds. We have no more funds, but we have valuable equipment, and on its sale we could realize a substantial profit. But we realize that there is a need for the continuance of the work we have started. For that reason we have agreed to give the place to the Great War Veterans' Association on the condition that they carry on the work on the same lines as we have established, offering benefits to men of all creeds and nationalities. So, while the K. of C. will cease to have control, the work will live."

Raised Millions

Mr. O'Connell quoted figures showing the enormous volume of war work undertaken by the Knights of Columbus in Canada and the United States. Between the two countries more than $32,000,000 had been raised for K. of C. work for soldiers of all creeds and nationalities. Not a dollar, he said, had been mis-spent. He pointed out that British Columbia had raised $85,000, although the organization had spent $95,000 within the Province.

Right Rev. Bishop MacDonald, one of the guests of the club, spoke briefly on the work, and declared that it was largely the embodiment of the Rotary principle of unselfish service.

"I hope that the great convulsion of the war has shaken the world out of the rut of selfishness," he declared. "Selfishness, after all, is the bane of humanity. We now have to choose a middle ground between two forces—Bolshevism and capitalism. I am not a Socialist and I appreciate that capitalism must exist. But there is such a thing as selfish capitalism, too much wealth in the hands of a few. There must be a more even distribution of the world's wealth or we must take the consequences. Economic conditions today are rotten to the core. We have got to get down to a thorough recognition that service, not self, must dominate."

DISLIKE IDEA OF ANOTHER CONFERENCE

Some Aldermen Oppose School Board's Request That Estimates Question Be Re-Opened

Members of the City Council who expressed themselves on the subject yesterday did not look kindly upon the proposal emanating from the School Board for another conference on school estimates. So far as these members are concerned, the negotiations have been terminated and they intend to fight against their resurrection.

The School Board, on the other hand, declines to accept the Council's decision against the payment of the $57,978 estimates as final. The attitude of the two bodies, according to indications yesterday, is likely to cause more friction between the School Board and the City Council and add another quarrel to the long series that has been a disturbing factor about the City Hall for the past two or three months.

Mayor Porter, although making no definite statement on the matter, appeared to be more inclined to bargain with the School Board than some of the aldermen. Some time ago he appointed a special committee to confer with the School Board as well as other departments, with a view to coming to an agreement on reduction of estimates.

"The Council played its hand when it resolved last Monday night not to meet the extraordinary School Board estimates out of the general levy," said Ald. Sangster. "That should be taken as final. So far as I can see, there is no justification in the proposal to reopen the question simply because some of the school trustees are evidently afraid to put a by-law to the people."

Resolutions

A motion to the following effect was proposed by Mr. A. C. Flumerfelt and adopted: "That any resolution presented for the consideration of the members shall be set out in the notice convening the meeting, for the following week, so that each member shall have knowledge of the same before being asked to vote; in other words, no resolution shall be considered by the club without one week's notice."

"I want to see Rotary a great power in the community," said Mr. Flumerfelt. "Our deliberations will carry much more weight if we have an opportunity to thoroughly digest the various issues before committing ourselves."

The Path to Health

For many thousands of women the Path to Health has certainly been through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When this great remedy was first introduced, and for many years after, skeptics frowned upon its curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by it has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands—doubt and skepticism have been swept away as by a mighty tidal wave, until today this purely vegetable medicine is recognized as the greatest remedy for woman's special ills in the world. This is because it is a wonderful tonic and reconstructor which acts directly and favorably upon the feminine organization and is a specific for that purpose.

charges for the use of such water, etc.

Mr. Hall pointed to the million already spent by the Government on reserve development, and to the $200,000 voted for the Johnson street bridge in anticipation of the industrial development of the former Indian lands. Adequate water supply was necessary if that industrial development was to be had, and he referred to the Sidney Rubber Roofing Company, to which the Government recently allocated a site, but which was having an impossible time to make an agreement with the Esquimalt Water Works Company. The latter company insisted that the former should pay $5,000 a year, whether it used the water or not, but in case of fire would consent to a rebate for three months. But, if through strikes or other causes, the Rubber Company was unable to operate the water works concern would allow it no consideration.

Government Interested

The price charged by the water works company was nearly double that which would be charged by the city, Mr. Hall said, and he pointed to the interest the Government has in the matter in that, under the industrial aid plan, of the Department of Industry, the Roofing Company had been extended a loan for $100,000. The Government's advisor on the company's board of directors held that he could not advise the advance be made in the face of the agreement demanded by the Esquimalt Water Works Company. It was up to the Government to give the city the right to serve the reserve area with a water supply, though he believed the city had gone too far before the Private Bills Committee in asking for the right to distribute water in Victoria West.

Mr. M. B. Jackson believed that the Government, having secured use of the reserve and paid for it, should be entitled to deliver water there, if not at a profit, at least for industrial development. The Legislature should go slowly in interfering with any of the rights of the Water Works Company, but he considered it was justified in throwing out a note of warning to the company that it should go further and give such favorable contract as would not give ground for the alternative step of carrying further the question of the company's right to a monopoly in the reserve.

All Facts Not Known

Mr. Bowser regretted that the amendment, one contrary to the findings of the Private Bills Committee, had been introduced. There had been ample opportunity for all parties interested to appear before the committee and state their respective cases. The Legislature was not in possession of all the facts and it was hardly to be expected that at this late hour in the session the House should sit, as it were, on appeal from the committee. He outlined the facts of the organization of the water works company thirty-five years ago and to the decision of the Privy Council that the company has exclusive jurisdiction in Victoria West. He deprecated any step now that would be a repudiation of the contract entered into between the Legislature and company thirty-five years ago, stating any violation of such rights would have a serious effect. Whether the Legislature might later see fit to take action in the event of development of the reserve being held up was a matter that could be dealt with when the occasion arose. Colonel McIntosh suggested the reserve lands were not involved in the rights granted to the company under its charter, and Mr. George Bell recalled the company's representatives had informed the Private Bills Committee it could meet all requirements from industries requiring water on the reserve. But he understood the rates proposed to be charged were just the difference between industries staying there and being forced to go elsewhere. Industrial development of the reserve would mean greater population in the Victoria West section and consequent greater business for the company and, he believed, that aspect of the matter should be considered by the company.

Needed Investigation

Premier Oliver said he had not time to go fully into the whole matter, but he believed that thirty-five years ago the Songhees Indian reserve was held by the Dominion in trust for the Indians and the then Legislature had no power to deal in any way with it. Further, the company had no power to enter upon Crown lands unless expressly allowed to do so. With the exception of the land sold to the E. & N., the reserve is still Crown property and the water works company cannot enter upon it unless expressly permitted to do so. He pointed to the large financial obligations of the Government there and declared it was a vital question whether, after all this has been done, the Province and city was to be robbed of any benefits because of some alleged monopoly granted thirty-five years ago.

"It is up to the company to prove, and prove to the hilt, its rights to a monopoly," declared the Premier. "If it is so proved then, I say, this Legislature is entitled to take the matter under full advisement in view of all the possibilities and knowing we are heavily obligated there."

Hon. Mr. Farris thought that had the Premier given an assurance there would be an investigation and as a result a decision as to the course of action to be taken, he would have supported it. But in the meantime he would vote against any measure that threatened vested rights and in regard to which he had not had opportunity to go fully into it.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite suggested the parties could go to the courts and then if any hardships remained the Legislature might act.

A Solution

Mr. G. G. McGeer suggested the Government should itself apply for a water record on Sooke Lake, paying the city a nominal sum to bring the water to the reserve and then the Government sell it for development purposes.

Mr. Hanes wanted the city to have opportunity to expand.

Mr. F. A. Pauline contrasted the charge of three cents per thousand gallons the Esquimalt Water Works was charging the Roofing Company with the six cents the city charges Saanich for water. The company had had to spend $10,000 in putting in mains and the roofing company had agreed to the charge. More should be known of the matter, he believed.

Mr. Hall replied that the company was charging the roofing concern double what the city charged similar concerns and that the time has come when the waterworks company is holding up development on the reserve and it was time for the Legislature to declare itself.

The amendment was defeated by a vote of fifteen to thirteen.

The bill was then reported complete with amendment.

A Draught-Proof Screen

Keeping draughts away from the passengers of the back seats of cars is never easy of accomplishment, but a Birmingham firm has produced a screen which is claimed to accomplish this purpose very effectively. This screen consists of a wide central pane of glass contained in a light or dark mahogany, walnut or ebonised wood frame. At each side is a subsidiary wood frame, with glass, hinged to the main screen and fitted with adjustable joints so that these side wings can be set at any desired angle or folded inwards parallel with the main glass when it is desired to shut the screen up. By this means it is possible to ride in the back seats of a fast car with perfect comfort, and ladies in particular will welcome this screen.

A Concrete Ribbon Road

There is a road in America which is paved with stripes of concrete separated by stripes of macadam. The road is fifteen feet wide and at the outer edges there are two strips of concrete, each thirty inches wide, to take the outer wheels of vehicles. At the centre there is a strip of concrete five feet wide. The intervening spaces are filled with stone and gravel. Not only does this make an economical road, but it tends to distribute the traffic, keeping motor-cars on their own side of the road, with a result that there is less danger of accidents and less road wear.

A Novel Thief Catcher

By means of what the Marylebone magistrate described as a clever device, Detective-Sergeant Lawrence arrested a man whom he accused of stealing a wallet from his overcoat pocket. Lawrence attended the gymnasium of the Ministry of Pensions at Lansdowne Gate, and left his wallet in the coat pocket when he went in for treatment. Before he left, however, he attached an electric wire to the wallet, a battery being at one end, and a loud buzzer at the other. He had been gone for only a short time when the buzzer sounded, and immediately cancelling theft, returned to his overcoat to find Frederick James Jones, a Blackfriars man, standing nearby in amazement.

designed to meet the abnormally high cost of living due to the war. He also stated that the time was coming soon when the bonus system would have to be stopped and salaries paid in one sum.

Donald Sutherland, South Oxford, condemned the "humbug" about the wrongs of civil service employees. They were continually representing themselves as underpaid. They broke their necks, he said, to get into the service, and then spent most of their time in it agitating for consideration denied ordinary workers, who generally had half a day's work done when the civil servants began their day.

He spoke of rivalry between Ministers, overlapping between the departments, and the general folly of conceding the civil servants privileges and bonuses, which may bankrupt the country.

Mr. Sutherland asserted that civil servants should be dismissed by the thousand and a little efficiency introduced. Commission control was a fallacy. There was an organized body in the civil service which dictated to the Government, and had it by the throat, said Mr. Sutherland, amid Opposition cheers. He referred, he said, to the strikers in the service last year, when the Government was unable to get its printing done and suffered other inconveniences.

D. D. McKenzie asserted that a settlement of $12,500,000 should not be passed through an empty House. At the time there were but twelve members on the Government side and about twenty-five in the combined Opposition.

Not an Innovation

Sir Henry Drayton said this was not an innovation. The House was not asked to provide money for a new scheme. Civil service salaries had been fixed under different cost of living conditions, and this bonus had been found necessary to enable the workers to live. It was much easier, the Minister said, to step paying bonuses than to reduce salaries, once the latter were put up.

C. G. Power, Quebec, urged the Minister to consider the case of themselves by providing in this year's budget "a good and substantial increase in indemnities." The least that should be done, he said, was to free them from income tax or to allow them to deduct from their tax return the amount of their expenses in Ottawa.

Sir Henry Drayton said it would have been an injustice to the civil servants if a bonus had not been granted.

Finally, at 12:30 o'clock, and, on the suggestion of Sir Henry Drayton, the House allowed one-sixth of the amount to go through. This leaves the matter open for further discussion.

A supply bill, based on the resolution, was put through all its stages in about seven minutes and will go to the Senate.

The House adjourned at 12:40 o'clock.

France Drops Oil Contract.

PARIS, April 15.—Governmental purchase and distribution of all oils used in France will come to an end April 23, and all restrictions on commerce in oils will be lifted on that day. During 1919, France used 80,000,000 gallons of gasoline, and a similar amount of illuminating and lubricating oils, of which American oil companies furnished 80 per cent.

side amendment, declaring it to be a most serious one, for the whole principle of the act was to remove patronage from the Government and place the civil service above the dictates of the Government. If the amendment carried the Commissioner was at the call of the Government and not free to use his own judgment.

It was common rumor in legislative corridors that the question of a change in the act to grant power to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council to deal with the commissioner, was the subject of lengthy consideration in the recent Liberal caucus sessions, and that the decision to approve of the Whiteside amendment was arrived at. When the amendment came to a vote in the House last night the Government supporters, with the exception of Messrs. George Bell and Mr. Anderson, were found supporting it. The soldier members with those two Liberal members opposed it. The Conservative members voted with the majority. Premier Oliver left the Chamber just before the vote was taken.

It has been the constant charge of the Conservative Opposition that the aim of the Government was to defeat the purpose of the act. The amendment before the House last night was a case in point, they argued, for it was designed to take the Provincial Police from under the operation of the act and bring it under the jail regulations, which call for appointments by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council. Recently by an amendment to the Forest Act the lumber scalers were taken out of the Civil Service Act and, the Opposition Leader was wont to argue, it was only a question of time until the Civil Service Act, designed to keep the service from politics, would be a virtual dead letter. In fact he suggested the Government should show courage and throw the act out altogether rather than do it to death in piecemeal fashion.

A Mechanical Pilot.

One of the most ingenious of war inventions is the "leader gear," invented by the British for a certain war purpose. If a cable laid on the bottom of the sea—say in the channel leading into a harbor—is traversed by alternating current, it is possible, by means of delicate devices installed on board ship, for the navigator to see or hear indications of the presence of such a cable. So perfect is the mechanism that a ship can proceed at twenty knots in fogs or darkness, feeling its way along the cable almost as precisely as a tramcar trolley follows the overhead wire. By leader gear laid in such areas as the River St. Lawrence, the entrance to the Thames, or Halifax Harbor, the Straits of Dover, etc., in and out lanes of traffic can be maintained with ease in fogs.

Oil Shield

Vaporized oil that comes through the breather is blown out in a mist, covering the hood and engine, and making an abominable mess. This trouble may be cured by fitting an elbow of soft rubber hose over the breather pipe. A tin pipe is fitted over the other end of this elbow long enough to reach down into the dust-pan, to which it is fastened. In this way the vaporized oil will be carried away from the engine and hood.

German Violence in Schleswig.

COPENHAGEN, April 15.—A gendarme named Beckmann, attached to the International Commission in Schleswig, was slain yesterday at Flensburg while trying to calm an angry German mob, according to advices received here. The man who killed him escaped. It is feared this is the beginning of an organized movement against Danish control of Central Schleswig.

Manitoba Conservatives

WINNIPEG, April 15.—The Conservative party of Manitoba will place candidates in the field in every constituency of the Province for the July elections, it was said at the Provincial convention here yesterday, by R. G. Willis, leader of the party in Manitoba. Mr. Willis appealed to the delegates to call conventions this month.

Margarine Time Extended

OTTAWA, April 15.—Extension of the time for the manufacture and importation of oleomargarine until August 31, 1921, and for the sale of oleomargarine until March 1, 1922, is proposed by a resolution to be introduced in the House tomorrow by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture. Further amendments are proposed to fix the minimum fine for an infringement of the act at $50.

Cabrera Said to Have Fled.

HAVANA, April 15.—Manuel Estrada Cabrera, President of Guatemala, against whose administration a revolution has been going on during the past fortnight, is believed to have fled from that country and to be on his way to Cuba. A wireless dispatch purporting to have been signed by Cabrera saying he would embark for this city was picked up by the steamer Atenas.

A Huge Power Generator

The city of New York makes boast of possessing the largest power generator of its kind in the world. It has replaced seven vertical engines which were in-use up to the time of putting this huge plant in operation. This great generator has a capacity of 10,000 horsepower, sufficient to supply all the current for cities of about 250,000 population. Its power is equal to that of the largest ocean liner, thirty of the largest express locomotives, or a line of horses six abreast and ten miles long. A few years ago the vertical engines were the largest ever put up, and now comes a single machine, compared with which they look like toys.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid generation or they can use the proper thing in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas by means of premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without the need of pepsin pills or Bismuth Magnesia.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the Bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and see what you went at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

NOVEL FEATURE TOUR INSTALLED YESTERDAY

Pioneer "Tourists" Experience Thrill of Seeing Victoria's Premier Scenic Spots in Single Trip

For the first time sightseers were yesterday enabled to view the scenery of two of Victoria's most popular drives—The Malahat, and the West Saanich Road to Brentwood via the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory and the delightful gardens of the country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, on Todd Inlet—in a single tour of a little over four hours. This was made possible by the inauguration of the Magnet Tour by Messrs. Cronk Brothers. The first cars to make the round trip left yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were back in the city shortly after 6. It was pronounced by the pioneer travelers over the tour as one of the most charming outings within their experience.

The inauguration party, under the personal direction of Mr. James Cronk, manager of the Returned Soldier Auto Stand, left from in front of Belmont House in two seven-passenger touring cars. On Government Street one car turned to the left on Gorge Road in the direction of the Malahat Drive, and the other to the right on Hillside Avenue to gain the main motor artery of the Saanich Peninsula, at the intersection of Quadra Street. The two parties were reunited two hours later at Mill Bay, on the Island Highway.

Two Novel Features

These two famous drives are familiar enough to the most of Victoria's lovers of the roads contiguous to the city. The novelty in their combination has awaited the initiative of Mr. Cronk who has had the courage to join them up with a speedy launch service between Brentwood Bay and Mill Bay. Added to this special feature of a water trip in combination with the pleasure of a comfortable road drive in high-powered touring motor cars, he has one other attraction that is almost exclusive, and would alone make the Magnet Tour a thing of superlative popularity. This has been available to him personally, through the courtesy of Mrs. R. P. Butchart, who has thrown her beautiful gardens at "Benvenuto" open to his patrons on all days of the week. They are open to the public only during stated hours on two days of the week.

The water trip between Brentwood Bay and Mill Bay is one of the most delightful to be had on the Island. The fast launch "Swallow," of Deep Bay, has been chartered by the promoters of the Magnet Tour to carry their passengers between these two points. The natural loveliness of Saanich Arm has inspired painters and poets alike, but even the rhythm of poetry may scarce do justice to the kaleidoscope of vistas and panoramas unfolded during the twelve mile water journey under the shadows of Malahat mountain.

The gardens of "Benvenuto" are already famed for their beauty and novelty. Even at this season of the year they are fast becoming a forecast of their loveliness in Summer, and the wonderful skill of the gardener in transforming a deserted quarry into a veritable paradise has given the eye a scenic marvel.

Will Appeal to Tourists

While the tour may inspire Victorians to become better acquainted with their own scenic surroundings, its real worth to the community will lie in an undoubted appeal to the traveling public visiting the city for a brief stop and keen to gain the greatest amount of pleasure in the most comfortable way. It is designed, in the belief of its promoters, to become a publicity asset to the city of great value.

Mr. Cronk has opened the tour some weeks in advance of the tourist season with an idea that it may become firmly fixed in its true value of attractiveness before that time. It is being widely advertised in the neighboring cities of the Coast, particularly in the Sound Cities, whence inquiries have already been drawn in large numbers. For the present the cars will depart from the city but twice daily, at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As the interest in the tour increases, the facility for handling the traffic will be increased.

Everything that will contribute to the completeness of the tour is being carefully worked out. As Mr. Cronk puts it, "the distinctive feature of a 'magnet' is to draw, and we are going to make this tour one of the biggest drawing features of a visit to this Island." His advertising of this tourist feature should bring much attention to this city.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 15.—Potatoes will be taken off the bills of fare in all Aberdeen restaurants on Sunday as the result of a meeting of eating house proprietors last night. The restaurant men also issued an appeal for the public to enter into the boycott on potatoes.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW AT DUNCAN OPERA HOUSE

DUNCAN, April 15.—Only a fair audience greeted the vaudeville performance given last evening in the Opera House under the auspices of the Victoria Radio Club in aid of the Armenian relief fund. The programme consisted of selections (song and dance) given by Mr. D. Ryland, when he appeared in costume, taking the part of a Spaniard and of a curate, and was seen in the Lancashire clog dance. Mr. Merryfield left the audience still guessing by his mystical reading and sleight-of-hand tricks. The Ross sisters of Vancouver were first heard in song, and then later did some very graceful dancing. Mr. Bryson rendered solos, and then Miss Molly Hibben, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Hibben, delighted the audience, and won further laurels, if possible, to the name she already has made for herself as Victoria's premier toe dancer. She responded most graciously and generously to the applause that was accorded to her, giving three delightful interpretations. Master Buckle as a female impersonator was indeed clever and few in the audience gleaned for a moment that it was one of the sterner sex who was registering such anguish in the love scenes and others given. Miss Mellis was heard in two recitations and Mr. A. Rylands rendered solos, with the audience joining in the chorus. Following the entertainment a dance was indulged in.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. PETER'S, QUAMICHAN

Miss Gweneth C., Daughter of Rev. F. L. Stephenson, Becomes Bride of Mr. Lancelot Ashby

DUNCAN, April 15.—A very pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Peter's Church, Quamichan, yesterday afternoon, when Gweneth C., daughter of the Rev. F. L. Stephenson and Mrs. Stephenson of the Rectory, Quamichan, became the bride of Lancelot (Jack) Ashby, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ashby, of Kent, England.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Stephenson, father of the bride, assisted by the Rev. F. G. Christmas.

The bride looked lovely in her wedding dress of white silk voile, combined with Georgette crepe and pearl trimming, with veil and orange blossoms; while in the fact that the veil is the one that had been worn by her mother, there lay an added charm, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eileen Stephenson, who wore a very attractive gown of cream net lace, and large black hat. Mr. Dennis Ashby, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. W. Fisher, of Metchosin, B.C.

Following the ceremony, many friends repaired to the Rectory, where a reception was held, and the happy couple received the felicitations of their many friends. The lovely and useful gifts testified to the high esteem in which the couple are held.

The bride's going-away costume was of dark blue serge with hat en suite.

Daffodils and plum blossoms were used to advantage in a most effective decorative scheme, which was carried out in the church and at the Rectory by the young friends of the bride.

Following a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby will take up their residence on Somenos Lake.

Speaks on Indian Act

NANAIMO, April 15.—An Ottawa dispatch says that Rev. P. Kelly, the Methodist missionary on Nanaimo Reserve, and himself a Haida Indian, addressed the special committee of the House of Commons on the proposed amendment to the Indian Act. DRUM HEAD SERVICE

Anniversary of Second Battle of Ypres Will Be Commemorated With Fitting Ceremonies

The anniversary of the second Battle of Ypres is to be celebrated with a Drum Head Service to be held on April 25 at Church Hill, commencing at 3:30 p.m. The details were announced at the meeting of the British Campaigners' Association last evening, a letter from the Central Council approving the Campaigners' proposal.

This service is to be open to members of all returned men's organizations, and it was understood that the Great War Veterans, the Comrades of the Great War, and the Army and Navy Veterans would also join.

The British Campaigners will assemble at 3:15 on Yates Street, below Government, on the day appointed, and will parade from there to Church Hill. Colors will be carried, and it is especially requested that all members wear decorations on the lapel of the outer coat.

Conveyances will be provided for crippled members of the various organizations at the point of rendezvous, also for old campaigners. Should the weather be unfavorable, the service will be held in the Cathedral. The Dean of Columbia will take the service, and the address will be by Rev. G. H. Wells, of Cedar Hill, an old campaigner.

Comrades A. D. Macdonald and J. Gordon Smith were appointed a committee to take up the matter of a memorial scheme whereby the people of Victoria might unite in commemorating in enduring form the men from this part of Canada who gave their lives in action.

The meeting accepted an invitation from Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, rector of St. John's Church, to attend a special memorial service to be held Sunday afternoon next, at 3:30, in connection with the unveiling of a reredos. This reredos, it was noted by President Winkel, has been made entirely by disabled soldiers in the S.C.R. Vocational School.

INCREASE OF PENSIONS

British Campaigners Go On Record Asking for Additional Grant Owing to H. C. L.

Mr. Beaumont Boggs, at the meeting of the British Campaigners' Association last night, moved that, in view of the high cost of living, the association go on record as favoring application being made through Ottawa for an increase of pensions to ex-members of the Imperial forces whose age prevented them enlisting for service during the late war.

The injustice of not recognizing for pension purposes the services of the ex-Imperials who trained and organized the C.E.F. was also made a matter of comment, and it was resolved that a communication be sent this be sent to the Secretary of State.

Eating Imitation Foods

VIENNA, April 15.—People of this city are beginning to find out what they have been eating in various imitation foods. Experts who have investigated the composition of certain foodstuffs now on sale have reported that egg substitutes are made largely of flour, that "liver sausages," beloved by the Viennese, are based on wheat dissolved and seasoned, and that some cheese is a preparation of potatoes mildewed to get the proper taste. "Ground horse meat" is the latest "delicacy" to appear in the shops.

Photographs taken by the [illegible] process required an exposure of from five to fifteen minutes.

ASSURED OF ADEQUATE INTEREST IN ESTATE

Measure Introduced by Attorney-General Provides That Widow and Family Will Be Amply Protected

The possibility of a testator dying and leaving his property away from his wife and children, depriving them of any adequate means of subsistence from out of his estate, is prevented by the bill brought down in the Legislature yesterday by Attorney-General Farris. It provides that if any person dies leaving a will and without making therein, in the opinion of the judge of the Supreme Court, an adequate provision for the proper maintenance and support of the testator's wife, husband or children, the court may, at its discretion, order such provision as may be deemed adequate in the circumstances, such provision to be made in a lump sum or by periodical payment. Extensive powers are granted to the judge to levy the sums awarded in manner it may deem most suitable. The order shall be a charge against the estate. Application for benefits under the act must be made within six months from the date of the grant or resealing in the Province of the probate of the will. The estate must not be distributed until six months after the graning or resealing in the Province of probate of the will, unless the court so authorizes distribution, and until the expiration of that period no title passing by devise shall be regisered in any Land Registry office unless with the like consent or in pursuance to court order.

Dower

In moving the second reading of the bill, Hon. Mr. Farris pointed to a resolution on the order paper under the name of Mr. G. A. Hanes, member for North Vancouver, calling upon the Legislature to approve of the bringing down of an act granting dower to the widow in the estate of her dead husband to the amount of one-third of the estate. He was sorry he did no have as an audience the ladies who last week were present when the Mothers' Pensions Act was passed. He did not suggest the bill was the last word on what the Government was prepared to do in protecting the interests of the women and children. In fact, he felt the Government should go further than the form of dower suggested. He pointed to the existing dower rights as a sort of camouflage dower that did not meet the situation. The present bill applied not alone to the widow but also to the husband of a woman who died possessed of property.

Such legislation, the Attorney-General held, was a step in the progressive and consistent policy of the present Government. It had been suggested that the husband could defeat the object of the bill by giving away his property before death, but he argued that any man mean enough to consider such a step would be so mean and selfish that he would hold on to his property until he died. He stated women's organizations had represented to him that the one-third dower suggested in the Hanes amendment fell far short of what the women of the Province believe they are entitled to. Under the new Land Registry Act which had been drafted and which will be held over until next year to permit of full consideration, still further legislation on the subject of dower would be worked out, he said.

Mr. F. J. A. MacKenzie believed the Government was not going far enough. The net effect of the bill to him appeared to be to give the widow the right to plunge into a lawsuit, and he looked forward to supporting more adequate legislation at next year's session.

Mrs. Smith expressed her appreciation of the act, stating she was sure the women of the Province would be glad it had been introduced, and they would feel happier. She congratulated the Attorney-General, stating he was paving the way for legislaion as nearly perfect as it was possible to get it.

The bill was given its second reading.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Gladys Peters, of Esquimalt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. L. Coulson, in Toronto, for the past few weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. R. F. Green has joined her husband in Ottawa and during the session of the House they will make their headquarters at the Chateau Laurier.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Sloan, of York Place, for a couple of weeks, has returned to her home in Vancouver. She was accompanied by Mrs. Sloan, who will visit her mother, Mrs. MacDougall, and Mrs. Johnson for a few days.

Mrs. William J. Cave and daughter, Dorothy, have gone over to Vancouver to attend the wedding of Miss Enid Case and Mr. G. F. Salloway.

Probably the most remarkable collection of feminine finery ever seen was on view at the Hotel Drouot, Paris, recently, when the wardrobe of the late Princess Lobanoff came under the hammer. Since her girlhood in the sixties of last century, the Princess had collected prodigious quantities of dresses, lingerie, bed linen and the like, much of which she never used. Among the items of the sale were evening dresses by the hundred, about 800 tea gowns, many dozens of every kind of underwear, which had never been unfolded since delivery fifty years ago, rich brocades, heavy silks, rare laces and beautiful embroideries—all as new and of such material as can not now be bought at any price in the shops. A thousand to twelve hundred dollars, and even more was paid for bundles of Second Empire lingerie of pure linen. Five bed sheets were sold for $500.

Miss Isabelle Taylor, of this city, who is visiting in Vancouver, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Herring, Florence Court, was the raison d'etre of a card party given by her hostess on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Booth have returned to their home in Vancouver after a short holiday spent with friends in this city.

Miss Eileen Graveley, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Betty Gray, has returned to Vancouver.

The silver tea given yesterday afternoon in the King's Daughters' rest room, Hibben-Bone Building, by the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., under the convenership of Mrs. T. H. Brown, was an outstanding success, both socially and financially, as besides realizing a substantial amount for the chapter's work among the families of soldier-settlers, the affair was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance. During the afternoon tea was served at daintily-appointed tables centred with vases of lovely Spring blossoms, and an impromptu programme was given by Mrs. Jaffray, pianist, the Misses W. Bell and L. Christie, vocalists, with Miss Nora Edwards accompanying the soloists at the piano. Those who assisted Mrs. Brown in the arrangements for the event were Mrs. Willis Dean, Mrs. C. E. Watkins, Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, Mrs. A. S. Christie, Mrs. Colin Cummins, Miss Sorby and Miss Gill.

INGENIOUS FINANCING

Saanich Councillor Proposes to Cut Timber to Offset Cost of New Road

The cutting down of the ward allotments this year by Saanich has made the individual councillors remarkably keen in financial matters. The ingenious plan put forward by Councillor Brookes proves this. He has a road he wants cleared in his ward, and he claims there is some fine timber to be cut down. The councillor advocated that settlers there be paid out of general revenue to cut the wood with a power saw they have. The municipality was to sell the wood and the cost of cutting would then go back into general revenue. The profits were to go toward making the road. Councillor Brookes was told to make a report with desired information next week.

AN EDITOR'S NEW BROOM

Mr. James Douglas, late editor of The London Star, began his new task as editor of The London Sunday Express last Sunday, and here is his first editorial:

"A new editor is like a new broom, for new brooms sweep clean, and they sometimes produce that startling paradox, a clean sweep. I hope the old readers and the new readers of The Sunday Express will fall in love with its new form.

"One thing I promise. The Sunday Express will not write itself down to any imaginary level of taste. I believe its readers want the best, and not even the second best.

"Keen and Clean"

"I believe they will welcome into their homes on Sunday a journal fit for Sunday reading from the first page to the last. The Sunday Express has adopted as its motto the phrase, 'Keen and Clean.' It will try to live up to that motto every Sunday, so that every household in the United Kingdom which desires a Sunday paper fit to be read by the whole family may order it without misgiving and read it without mistrust.

"Cynics may say that I am aiming too high, and that cleanliness is not the policy that pays in a Sunday paper. Well, it is a matter of faith and not of Pharisaism. The Great War has made a new England, a new Wales, a new Scotland, a new Ireland. Newspapers ought to renew their youth so as to keep pace with the new soul of the new world.

"A friendly and humorous critic of Mr. Asquith declared that he addressed the mill-girls of Paisley as though they were experts on the Treasury bench. 'Perhaps I did,' he retorted, 'but they listened.' Well, The Sunday Express proposes to treat its readers with confidence. In its pages they will find week by week the freshest news and the freshest views.

"The Sunday Express will be as keen as a tiger in its hunt for news, and it will be as clean as a whistle in its handling of news. I base this decision on the rock of the British Sunday. And I think there is a niche in the heart of the people for a popular Sunday journal which tries to keep the Sabbath holy without being dull, or priggish, or prudish, or Pecksniffian.

"At any rate, I take the plunge fearlessly, because for a quarter of a century I have always endeavored to write up to the intelligence of my readers and never down to it, whether I dealt with politics, with literature, or with the ordinary life of the ordinary people."

Influenza in Japan

All told there have been 1,724,362 cases of influenza in the country since September and 65,853 persons have died of that disease.

CAPTAIN GARNERS HILL, of Portland, Me., who says he was not able to report for duty before taking Tanlac. Declares he feels like a new man now and is on deck every day ready for work.

"I feel just like a new man since I began taking Tanlac and I am not only willing, but I am anxious to tell other people what this medicine has done for me," said Captain Earnest H. Hill, Portland, Me., recently.

Captain Hill is in command of the Ben Hur, plying between Portland and Casco Bay. He has been in the service for ten years and is held in high regard as an officer and citizen by all who know him.

"I have suffered from indigestion and stomach trouble for the past eight years," continued Captain Hill, "and at the time I started taking Tanlac I was in such a weakened condition I could hardly stand up. When I walked I would actually stagger like a drunken man and, at times, would have to hold on to something to keep from falling. After every meal I would simply suffer torment. My food would sour and I would swell up so with gas I could hardly get my breath.

"I would also have awful smothering spells at night, and sometimes I would have to get up to get my breath. Lots of times I would have to open the windows and doors to let in fresh air, or go out into the open air in order to get my breath. I could not find anything to do me any good, and along towards the last I became so weak and nervous I could not do my work.

"Five bottles of Tanlac have made a wonderful change in my condition. It helped me from the very first dose and now I feel as good as I did when I was twenty years old. I sleep fine and have a fine appetite and just feel like a new man in every way. I am now able to be on deck every day ready for duty."

CURFEW BELL MAY BE DISCUSSED TODAY

If So, Lively Debate Is Looked for — Women's Delegation Expected to Wait on Streets Committee

Unless the curfew bell issue is tackled this afternoon's session of the Streets Committee of the City Council is likely to be quiet and uneventful. It is expected by some of the aldermen, however, that a delegation from the Local Council of Women will make representations to the committee on the curfew question, and, if so, there may be some lively discussion.

So far, the only aldermen prepared to express an opinion on the proposed inauguration of the curfew bell here have opposed it. "Calgary tried the plan and made a farce of it," said Ald. Gangster yesterday. "I doubt if it could be made any better here. We have a police force and if it does its duty, we will have no need of a curfew bell."

Other aldermen believe that it is a question that should be left strictly with the parents, as they will be responsible in any case. If parents have no control over their children and do not keep them off the streets after dark, a curfew bell is not likely to be any more effective, they argue.

However, that is only one side of the story. Members of the Local Council of Women contend that there is a real need for the bell, and if they wait on the committee this afternoon they will tell why.

The Streets Committee will be asked this afternoon to pass on the plans for the Sidney Rubber Reading Company's proposed buildings on the Songhees area.

SECOND NARROWS BILL BEFORE COMMITTEE

OTTAWA, April 15.—An act respecting the Burrard Inlet Tunnel & Bridge Company was before the standing committee on railways in the Commons this morning. The chairman explained that this was an application for extension of time. Mr. Crowe, who fathered the bill, said the stock was all held by municipalities bordering on the Inlet, and much was held by Vancouver and South Vancouver. These municipalities found themselves unable to build their bridge or tunnel at present.

H. A. Mackie, Edmonton, objected to long extensions which allowed these companies to "fool the public indefinitely." He declared this charter had been extended from 1910 to 1920, and some action should now be made certain within a stated time.

Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, did not object to either the bridge or railway charter which he said were simply to connect the two shores. The bill carried.

Tango in Argentine

BUENOS AIRES, April 15.—The Argentine has retained its affection for its national dance, the tango, despite the introduction of American "jazz" music and syncopated melodies in the programmes of Argentine halls and dances. This was shown during the balls held in a recent carnival, when tango tunes outnumbered the fox-trot and one-step in a proportion of three to one. The Argentines call the syncopated music "Yanqui" tunes. Some native musicians have grown rich composing tangoes. One of the most popular here is called "Pan y Agua" (Bread and Water). The title of another is translated as "Flower of the Mud."

VETERANS WOULD USE TRAWLERS ON COAST

Local Organizers of Big Fishing Scheme Apply to Government for Boats Tied Up on Atlantic

A number of influential British Columbia men, all of whom have seen service overseas, are at the present time endeavoring to organize a company to operate steam trawlers in the fishing business off the British Columbia coast. The Federal Government is being approached with a view to obtaining some of the vessels used during the war on the Atlantic Coast for patrol and minesweeping work. These boats, it is understood, are still lying in Halifax unused. It is hoped by the men behind the scheme that the Ottawa authorities will see fit to either lend or lease the boats.

The organizers plan to eventually fish on a large scale off Vancouver Island and on other parts of the coast. They believe that there are hitherto untouched fishing banks where trawlers could profitably operate. Returned naval and army veterans would man the boats and would also be employed in the ice making and fish curing plants which it is planned to operate ashore in conjunction with the trawlers. In this way a large number of men would be employed, if present plans materialize. In making the necessary equipment, such as nets, others would be employed.

Commander C. H. R. Slingsby, R.N., is one of the prime movers in the new venture. During part of his overseas service he was stationed at Grimsby and saw the methods used by the trawlers there. He points out that in places such as that the majority of the populace depend upon the fishing industry for a living. The otter trawl would be used on this coast, he states, as well as other methods which would be developed to suit conditions in this part of the world. The capital employed in the company will be British Columbia money. Commander Slingsby believes that fish which have been seen little on the market in the past or not at all will be procured by the trawlers and put before the public. He also thinks it quite possible that the price of some fish may be reduced by the new concern.

WHO OWNS SEABIRD QUESTION AT ISSUE

Chief Justice Hunter in Chambers Directs Trial of Question as to Ownership of Schooner

In an interpleader application yesterday to Chief Justice Hunter, sitting in Supreme Court Chambers, it not only appeared that the question of who owns the good ship Seabird was very much at issue, but it also seemed doubtful whether the numerous parties to that issue would ever get the legal preliminaries sufficiently untangled to bring a definite and clear-cut case into court. However, the Chief Justice patiently, albeit promptly, unravelled the tangled skein knit for him by the counsel for the various parties, and finally ordered that the trial issue should be directed to the ownership of the boat.

The case has arisen out of the sale of the auxiliary schooner Seabird by Mr. J. Percival Walls to Mr. H. T. Michelson, a well-known local fisherman. Payment in full on the craft was not made, and as a result of the failure to complete the transaction, Mr. Walls obtained a judgment against the buyer, and a writ of execution was issued. In pursuance of this stage of the proceedings, Sheriff F. G. Richards seized the boat, and had her taken over to the Government wharf, and there tied up.

Then appeared upon the legal scene two other fishermen, Messrs. Paul Hansen and Viggo Ben, and claimed each a one-third interest in the schooner. And it was as a result of these claims that Sheriff Richards yesterday came into Chambers with his application for an interpleader order.

Mr. R. C. Lowe, who is appearing for Mr. Walls, wished to have the other claimants to the ownership of the boat made the plaintiffs in the coming suit. Mr. H. A. Maclean, appearing for these claimants, objected, and was sustained by Chief Justice Hunter. And Sheriff Richards, appearing in person with an application for an order that should settle the present status of all these persons to the suit, was granted an order as stated; and it will now be ultimately competent for the courts to well and truly try the issue: Who owns Seabird.

Stomach and Liver Trouble

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes wilful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of sorts. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal state, you should take Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They liven up the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Mrs. G. L. Chabott, Wainwright, Alta., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have found them good for both stomach and liver troubles. I have told others about your valuable medicine and they have used them with good results.

"They are also good for headache."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PUSHING IN EARLY

The Fushimi Maru upset calculations on the waterfront yesterday by radiographing that she would reach William Head at 7 this morning. She was not expected until noon at the earliest. A message on Wednesday said she would arrive Friday afternoon. The liner will be alongside about 8:30 to discharge nearly one thousand tons of freight and to put off a number of passengers.

OOLICHANS START TO RUN ON FRASER

These Fish Only Sold Fresh and Not Canned — Spring Salmon Running Strong in River

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 15.—Yesterday the oolichans started to run in the Fraser and in consequence a very considerable number of sea gulls could be observed hovering over the waters of the river opposite this city. The oolichans constitute almost exclusively a fresh fish supply. Very few are shipped out and they are not taken for canning purposes. About eight cents per pounds is paid to the fishermen for these fish, but the prices vary.

Spring salmon are still running strong in the river and the catches are proving profitable, both to the canners, fish dealers and fishermen. One old-time fisherman the other day made the record of $142 for two days fishing. This, of course, is exceptional, but generally speaking, according to the canners and fisheries experts of this district, the run of springs this year has exceeded any season for the last fifteen years.

"It proves conclusively," stated a well known canneryman yesterday, "that the spring salmon will never be fished out by the use of gill nets."

DAMAGES PAID ON OREGON ARE LEARNED

Charterers Got Fifty Thousand Dollars and Five Thousand Dollars Costs for Seizure of the Schooner

The amount of damages paid to the charterers of the schooner Oregon, which lay here for three and a half years after being captured as a prize of war, have been announced. The Imperial Government parted with $50,000 damages and $5,000 costs and set the vessel free. The Government first offered the boat without damages or costs. This was just before the case was to go before the Admiralty Court. The chartering firm refused this and negotiations resulted in the above amounts being obtained. The local law firm of Bass & Bullock-Webster handled the case for the owners.

Mr. C. Linga, German-born and resident in Mexico, a member of the firm which had the Oregon under charter at the time of her seizure, was in Victoria for some months at the time negotiations were going on and he was here while the ship was being refitted. Mr. Linga entered Canada only after permission from the Government. He also had to obtain Government permission to enter the United States.

Mr. K. W. Wohler, brother of an ex-partner of Mr. Linga, was also in the city at the same time, looking after his brother's interests in the case.

The Leonor, another schooner seized by the Rainbow in the Gulf of California and held here as a prize, will have her fate settled by the Privy Council this Summer. The case was tried in the Admiralty Court and the ship ordered given back to the owners. The case was appealed.

The Oregon has reached her destination, Topolobampo, in the Gulf of California, with her cargo of lumber loaded at the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company's mill, on the Inner Harbor.

BANK OF ENGLAND RATE IS RAISED

Expected Elevation of Discount to Seven Per Cent Is Announced—Is Calculated to Cause Deflation of Credit

LONDON, April 15.—The rate of discount of the Bank of England was raised from 6 to 7 per cent today.

The increase in the minimum rate of discount from 6 to 7 per cent today by the Bank of England has removed the uncertainty which had been hanging over the market. It was considered bound to come in view of the inflated credit position and the continental financial situation, especially regarding exchanges, and may possibly stabilise the latter.

It probably will not, however, affect United States exchange. Any further unsettling of exchange regarding the United States is not expected until large bills fall due in the Autumn for the payment of food and commodities.

One reason for the present move is to bring the rate in line with other centres. The Belgian and other bank rates have recently advanced. The action of the Bank of England yesterday in raising the rate of interest on treasury bills to 6 1-2 per cent is to attract funds from other banks to the Bank of England on the Government account against maturing short dated indebtedness, which totals a big figure, and to check fresh borrowing.

The burden of the 7 per cent rate on the trade of the country, which is just expanding, will be great. Trade and finance, however, are expected to settle down to the new conditions, in the hope that necessary deflation of credit will follow and so assist toward normalizing conditions in the prices of commodities and the cost of living.

Total reserve increased 1,097,000.

Circulation decreased, 792,000.

Bullion increased, 304,077.

Other securities decreased, 13,659,000.

Public deposits decreased, 5,668,000.

Other deposits decreased, 10,880,000.

Notes, reserved increased, 1,120,000.

Government securities decreased, 3,230,000.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liabilities is 17.49 per cent; last week it was 14.38 per cent. Rate of discount 7 per cent.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

Esquimalt—to find the depth of water on the sill of the Dry Dock at any tide add 18.9 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

Can the Press Utter the Voice of the People?

'Some said 'John, print it.'
Others said 'Not so.'
Some said 'It might do good.'
Others said 'No.'"
—John Bunyan and his Pilgrim's Progress.

"'In my day,' said Lord Morley, formerly leader writer on The London Morning Star and Editor of The Pall Mall Gazette, 'there were none of these enormous circulations. A million readers were undreamt of.'

"'You must remember,' I replied, 'that you left journalism a profession. We have made it a branch of commerce.'

"This conversation took place when I was in journalism. Now that I stand outside I still recognize that it is a branch of commerce, but I doubt whether it ever has been, or can be, or will be a profession."
—Kennedy Jones, M. P.

Mr. Kennedy Jones, M. P., in his lively book, "Fleet Street and Downing Street," has some stimulating things to say about the possibilities of journalism, and his book sets out to answer such questions as—

"To what degree is the Press a political power? Is it a political power at all? Can its power be measured or gauged? How can the test be applied?"

Mr. Jones' answers to these questions are regarded by some of the reviewers as being rather cynical.

A Contemptible View of Journalism

Thus the reviewer in The Westminster Gazette says:—

"Independence in the newspaper, however, can count for little enough if the view of Mr. Kennedy Jones as to the natural function of journalism is to prevail. If the newspaper editor is a tradesman he will naturally go to the source from which he can obtain his wares wholesale. And if some of us protest against the most contemptible view of journalism that has yet been given to the world, do we not lay ourselves open to the retort that, so long as we are stupid enough to believe that principle should have precedence over pence, we can never hope to have the largest circulation in the world?"

The Capitalist Journalist

Then the Nation reviewer says:—

"So dependent is the daily Press upon an immense capital for setting up plant, purchasing paper and news, and controlling the machinery of distribution, that a new paper cannot hope to come into existence unless it is backed by capital running at least into hundreds of thousands. The individual newspaper journalist can only write with sincerity if he happens to agree with one of the few newspaper proprietors; and if he ceases to agree with him, his freedom is exposed for what it is worth. The newspaper Press finds once again a lion in the path—the successor of the Medieval Church, the Crown, the political gang—namely, the capitalist who controls the very mechanism of production and distribution upon which the Press depends. Mr. Kennedy Jones neither proclaims this truth, nor hides it; but he proves it."

Mr. Jones is himself responsible for this conclusion and has himself drawn the lightning by his own words. But it is only fair to recall other passages which reveal another mind—and of the two minds, why not choose the best, and label it "K. J.'s Best?"

"Journalism to me," he says, "remains a branch of commerce, but I see it to be a trade that has been won in the past by voyaging dangerous and uncharted waters. If it be resolute to maintain its prestige, to revive a political influence which once it had, to retain the success which it has secured by courage and enterprise, three great qualities continue to be essential—humanity, sincerity and character.

"When all is said and done, sincerity and character are the great qualities the British nation respects. For them the people are always willing to pay a high price, deeming them better than rubies. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

"That," suggests Mr. Kennedy Jones, "is a good working text for both Fleet Street and Downing Street."

The Man Behind the Paper

"For the last 30 years it has been my custom to peruse every morning all the London dailies and the leading provincial dailies (I do the same with the evening papers). This constant practice has quickened my mental perceptions and gives to me an accurate knowledge of the Press as a whole. Moreover, I am also personally acquainted with nearly all those who control the papers and a large number of those who do the actual writing. They who do not possess this experience would be surprised if they knew the extraordinary resemblance that exists between a newspaper and the man behind it."

To Create a Belief

"When I became a controller of papers I had to create the impression that those who bought them obtained better value in quantity and quality than could be found elsewhere. To achieve this, to obtain the best and the first news, it was necessary to create the belief that the Press, for which I was in part responsible, was a power in the land, and to that end I worked. Perhaps I builded better than I knew."

"Press opinion must reflect popular opinion. That was exactly what The Daily Mail did in its early days. We subordinated political questions to topics of general interest, and at once received the cordial support of vast numbers of readers who took no interest in the older papers, the columns of which were almost monopolised by politics in one form or another."

Papers and the People

"Newspapers derive their strength from the people, and the larger the number of their readers the greater is their revenue and their capacity as a megaphone. Ministers are the servants of the people and, therefore, if the argument be carried to its logical conclusion, Ministers should do the bidding of a Press which claims to be the voice of the people."

There is one notable and lengthy passage in K. J.'s book which gives utterance to a lofty conception of journalism. It occupies a page, and if K. J. did not always live up to it as a journalist he evidently knows that it contains the essential truth, and so he gives it place in his book.

"Will ever it be possible to hear what O. Henry calls 'the compensitive vocal message of massed humanity'?" he asks.

"That keen analyzer of the emotions tried to ascertain what the Voice of the City was saying. He asked first Amelia, the woman whom he loved. But she could tell him nothing. He tried a bar-tender, and before the bar-tender could give him an answer there came a double ring at a bell, which was a sign that his wife and his child were waiting for a glass of beer for their supper.

"He next spoke to a policeman on his beat, who remarked, 'Cities don't say nothing,' but asked him to keep an eye open for the inspector, as the 'gal' he married last Tuesday was waiting on the corner for a kiss.

"So the seeker goes home and sits beside his beloved.

"And then, wonder of wonders, and delight of delights! Our hands somehow touched, our fingers closed together and did not part.

"After half an hour Amelia said, with that smile of hers:

"'Do you know you haven't spoken a word since you came back?'

"'That,' said I, nodding wisely, 'is the Voice of the City.'

"It is a good idea, but somehow I believe the Voice of the People has a deeper message than this," continues Mr. Kennedy Jones.

"The story of an elder pedlar in words and emotions comes to my mind, he who went out to hear not the Voice of the City but the Voice of his God.

"'And the Lord passed by.' A great and strong wind brake in pieces the rocks, but the Lord was not in the wind, nor in the earthquake, nor in the fire that followed, but in the still, small voice. Vox dei, vox populi. It is this still, small voice, this whisper of the Eternal, which the wise journalist hears behind the convulsions and conflagrations of his age. He must clothe that whisper in words, he must echo the small voice, if his writing is to penetrate to the heart of his reader.

"The presence of the undying touch of the divine I imply when I speak of the human touch, lacking which a newspaper story, to my mind, is not worth the paper it is written on. Human, to me, is not an antithesis of divine; rather, it implies that presence of the divine without which every aspiration of mankind is materialistic or merely animal."

DEPRESSION FOLLOWS OPENING STRENGTH

Active Trading Gives Way to Irregularity on Account of Industrial Disturbance — Some Recovery at Close

NEW YORK, April 15.—Trading in stocks was active, with a strong tone, at the outset of today's session, in disregard of the higher discount rate announced by the Bank of England, but the market became irregular later, when the money and labor situation overshadowed all other considerations.

Call loans opened at the unusually high rate of 8 per cent, jumped to 13 during the uncertain intermediate period, advanced to 15 in the last hour, but eased to 12 in the final dealings.

This partial relaxation was accompanied by a vigorous rally, especially in the more prominent shares. Several of these issues attained maximum prices of the day, and the general list made up a large part of its loss.

Among the strongest and most conspicuous were Vanadium Steels, in which dealings far exceeded many of the usual favorites at a net gain of 6 points. Consolidated Textile had an advance of 3¼.

Oils were under pressure, although making only moderate reactions, with shippings and rails, but sugars, with a few exceptions, yielded much of their recent gains. Seasoned equipments and steels also were subjected to variable reversals on profit taking.

Sales amounted to 1,200,000 shares.

Advices from the principal centres of industry indicated that the railroad strike had assumed more ominous aspects. The Pittsburg district, for example, reported almost complete suspension of operations at mines and leading mills.

Yet another discouraging feature was the decline in Liberty bonds and Victory issues, nearly all of which established new low records. Total sales, par value, $17,650,000. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.
